TENTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Inspector of Penitentiaries

OF THE

DOMINION OF CANADA

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30TH JUNE, 1885.

Honourable JOHN S. D. THOMPSON,
Minister of Justice.

SIR,—I have the honour to submit my Annual Report, upon the state and administration of the Penitentiaries of the Dominion, for the year ended 30th June, 1885, as enjoined by the Act 46 Victoria, Chapter 37. Annexed are the Reports of the Wardens and other officers, and the Financial and Statistical Returns as by law determined.

The number of convicts, in each Penitentiary, on the 30th June, 1884, the number received and discharged in the course of the last financial year, and the number remaining on the 30th June last, are set forth in the following table:—

KINGSTON PENITENTIARY.

	Males.	Females.	Total.
Remaining 30th June, 1884	446	28	474
Received during the year	196	21	217
	642	49	691
Discharged by expiration of sentence, &c.	146	8	154
Remaining 30th June, 1885	496	41	537

An increase of 63 since the beginning of the year.

St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary.

	Males.	Females.	Total.

St. Vincent de Paul	4
Total increase throughout the Dominion	73

This is not as favourable a report as last year, when it was shown that there was a decrease of 70 compared with the return up to 30th June, 1883. At the close of the financial year 1883-4 Kingston had a decrease of 60 and St. Vincent de Paul of 43. The other three Penitentiaries aggregated a total increase of 33. This year, the Province (Ontario) which gave the largest decrease, in my last report, furnishes, by long odds, the greatest increase; the Maritime and distant Provinces having added, altogether, only 14 to our criminal registers, in excess of the number they recorded at the opening of the year, while the Province of Quebec enjoys the proud pre-eminence of scoring on the ground of a decrease. The number of convicts, in each Province, fluctuates somewhat, every year, in proportion, as I have been able to judge, to financial prosperity or depression. After deducting 28 lunatics belonging to Manitoba and N.W.T.—who cannot be properly classed as convicts—the actual increase is but 45, in the whole Dominion, which is a very small number, in view of the growth of the population. From this it may be fairly concluded that, the class of criminals, which reaches the Penitentiary, is, happily, not increasing to any alarming extent.

An increase of seven has taken place in the number of female convicts, the total being 41 as compared with 34 on 30th June, 1884. The Mercer Institute, at Toronto, tends to lessen the number of women who are committed to Kingston Penitentiary.

The death rate, 15, is precisely the same as last year; viz.:—5 at Kingston, 1 at St. Vincent de Paul, 2 at Dorchester, 3 at Manitoba and 4 at British Columbia Penitentiary. When it is taken into account that so many of the convicts are broken down in health and constitution when received into the Penitentiaries, the percentage is remarkably low and goes to establish the fact that, great care is bestowed upon the sick and that the sanitary condition of the several institutions meets with due attention from the Wardens and Surgeons.

With deep and sincere regret I have to mention the death of Mr. John Creighton, the late Warden of Kingston Penitentiary, which occurred on the 31st of last January. Though ailing for nearly a year, and, at times, seriously ill, he discharged the numerous and arduous duties of his office almost up to his last hour. He may be said to have died "in harness." He was upright and honourable, just and fair-dealing in his various relations in life. In his capacity as Warden, he was firm and impartial, and, at the same time, gentle and kind-hearted to all who deserved the exercise of those qualities. He had a clear head, sound judgment, a great fund of good common sense and sterling honesty of purpose. When he died the prisoners—as I had the opportunity of seeing—felt that they had lost a a true friend, one who always took an interest in their welfare. They gave very convincing proof of the estimate in which they held Mr. Creighton, by their exceptionally good conduct, for several weeks before his death. It would seem as if a general and mutual understanding had been arrived at, among themselves, to do nothing that would, in the least degree, disturb or annoy him whom they had learned to esteem as a benefactor. The Government, too, has lost in Mr. Creighton a faithful servant and a most efficient officer. Financially, as otherwise, his administration has been a splendid success. He enhanced the value of the public property entrusted to his management, tens of thousands of dollars. So modest and unobtrusive was he, that none but those intimately acquainted with his character and his every day life would give him credit for the one half of what he accomplished. The opportunities I have had of judging convinced me that, Mr. Creighton was as much interested in the well-being of the Kingston Penitentiary and its belongings, as though the whole were his own private property and the inmates his cherished wards. His personal worth and the services he rendered the country merit a better and higher tribute than the poor and inadequate eulogy which I have tried to pay to his memory. Your predecessor, Sir, knew Mr. Creighton longer and far better than I did; the Premier, too, was acquainted with his character and deserts, from early manhood; and, I venture to say that, both these distinguished personages would be ready to endorse all and more than I have said in his favour. He did not seek the position which he occupied. It was offered to him, as being eminently qualified to discharge the duties which the office entailed, well and faithfully. He fully realized the expectations entertained, as the result of his administration, in all its details, has proved. There is reason to believe that, in giving up a lucrative business and the Police Magistracy, to accept the office of Warden, his financial prospects were not improved; but contrariwise. Taking this into account, coupled with his faithful and zealous services, the multiplied proof he left behind of his constant and successful labours to conduct his administration with prudence and economy, and to increase largely the value of the public property, as shown in my former reports, along with the fact that, pursuant to rule and custom, only two months' salary could be granted to those dependent upon him, at his death, I may be permitted to suggest that a bonus be granted to his family, in recognition of his merits and deserving as a public officer.

This could be done by refunding the amount paid by him into the Superannuation Fund, from which he derived no advantage.

In appointing Dr. Lavell as the successor of Mr. Creighton to so important a charge as the Wardenship of Kingston Penitentiary, upon the recommendation of Sir Alexander Campbell, the Government has made, I believe, a good and judicious selection. Being at Kingston for some weeks before Mr. Creighton died, I was in a position to take in the situation, and when I saw that his end was at hand, I took the liberty of submitting the name of the present Warden, to the Minister of Justice, as a proper and competent person for the post, as I considered it my duty for the good of the Penitentiary and its future management, to call the attention of the Minister to one, who, as Surgeon for more than twelve years, had a thorough acquaintance with the character of the prisoners, and daily occasion to note how the affairs of the institution were conducted. Thus far, the new Warden has fulfilled the hopes I entertained of his fitness, at the time of his appointment.

Dr. Lavell has been succeeded, as Surgeon, by Dr. Strange, a gentleman peculiarly fitted for the position. Since his appointment his duties have been most satisfactorily performed.

Among social scientists, philanthropists who take an interest in the subject, and practical men, such as Directors and Inspectors of Prison Boards, Wardens and Governors of Penal Prisons and gaols, &c., the question of Prison Reform, including, of course, the reformation of the convicts, is regarded as one of absorbing interest and paramount importance. Not many years since, the chief consideration respecting the convict was his money value to the Prison; how much profit could be realized from his labour. That has given place to another view more in accordance with Christianity and with the true principles of political economy, namely: What can be done to restore this criminal a better man to society, capable of not alone supporting himself but of contributing, by his industry, to the revenue of the State? In the several Prison Congresses held in the United States, at London, Stockholm, and, recently, at Rome—at not one of which was the Dominion represented—Prison Reform furnished the main topic for discussion. At the Annual Meeting of the National Prison Association, held towards the end of October, at Detroit, and in the Toronto Convention, nearly two years ago, this was the theme for consideration. It is very often treated, both editorially and by correspondents in the leading journals of Great Britain and Ireland and the United States. Strange to say, this vital question which is enlisting the attention of almost every other civilized country, fails to evoke the sympathy or support of the Canadian press. It is a fact, then, that outside of Canada, a great deal has been done, particularly in the United States, for the reformation of the criminal class. Are we to remain passive and inactive in this age of boasted progress and civilization—when all the world besides is earnestly intent upon solving a problem which affects, so seriously, the welfare of governments and of society? It is to be hoped not.

I have endeavoured, in former Reports, to point out the defects in our Penitentiary system and to suggest a few feasible remedies. I may briefly repeat, here, that the great drawbacks to the reformation of convicts, with us, are twofold. First, the want of proper classification, as under the Crofton system, and at Elmira, N. Y.; and, secondly, the non-isolation of newly received prisoners, for a period of eight or nine months, and also of old and hardered criminals, who corrupt the well-disposed and incite them to insubordination and other violation of the rules.

With regard to the first requisite, I believe even an imperfect system of classification would be highly beneficial, and that some plan for that purpose could be devised, if an opportunity for a Joint Conference, between the Inspector and the Wardens, were afforded. I advised this course, two years ago, in my Annual Report; but, at that time, the Minister of Justice did not consider that the good to be accomplished would warrant the outlay necessary to cover the expenses attending the Conference. Without calling in question, for a moment, the judgment and decision arrived at, I have to express a hope that, owing to the progress, which the movement in favour of the reformation of convicts is making, you, Sir, may be induced to take a different view, and that you will sanction this initiatory step in that direction.

With regard to the second great requirement,—isolation—the character of the Penitentiary buildings has rendered it, heretofore, impracticable to introduce this much-needed measure of reform. It can be done, however, as I have shown in former reports, by providing the requisite number of large, well-lighted cells in the additions which are to be made to the several Penitentiaries, except Kingston, wherein the convicts confined can do their allotted work. When enlarging the cells of the Kingston Penitentiary—a work which I hope will be soon begun, pursuant to my former recommendation—a wing could be set apart for the purpose of isolating the two classes of convicts designated.

For some years past, the awarding of remission time and of good conduct badges have been in operation with marked success, especially, since the extension of the former boon by Parliament, two Sessions ago. I have ascertained from the Wardens that, these incentives to good behaviour and industry have had an excellent effect with all prisoners, who are not either imbeciles or too confirmed in wickedness to benefit by any privilege intended for their good.

Next to the moral and religious influence which the Chaplains by their instruction and advice must have over the convict, a prime factor in the plan for reformation, should be labour. And, here, I would take occasion to express my full concurrence with the condemnation pronounced, by a very able and distinguished speaker at the Detroit Convention, upon the custom too prevalent of associating "hard labour," with a penal sentence, thereby attaching to the honest and honorable pursuit of labour, a stigma, as it were, of degradation. The convict should be taught to respect labour and to follow it as one of the best means of attaining to a proper sense of self-respect, of manhood and to the way of supporting himself, upon his liberation, through the fruits of his own energy and industry.

It is well understood that, as soon as the sentence is pronounced which consigns a man to a penal prison, the convict becomes the ward of the State. As it is the duty of the Government to provide food, clothing and a lodging to meet the physical wants of the convicts, so, it may be fairly contended, the obligation rests with the State to furnish what is absolutely necessary to promote their moral and eternal welfare. Therefore, as it is universally contended and acknowledged that labour is a most potent reformatory agent, it is a duty incumbent upon the State or Government to enable those in charge of Prison administration to employ at some labour—productive, if possible—any convict who is physically able to work. This great question of prison labour is now being agitated throughout the United States, owing to the action of the Legislature, in some of the States, in abolishing the contract system. This was brought about through means of an agitation set on foot by political demagogues, to gain their own ends with the mechanical and labouring classes. Carefully prepared statistics show that free labour and industries do not suffer to any appreciable extent from prison contract labour. Take the State Prison for Illinois—Joliet—for instance, where more than twelve hundred convicts are employed in manufacturing, under contract, yet, the product of their labour does not reach quite $\frac{6}{10}$ of one per cent. of what is manufactured in the State outside. This will serve to illustrate how untenable and groundless is the opposition which has been offered, in Parliament, to prison contract labour, in Canada. If the policy under which so many were employed, as at Joliet,—four times the number that has ever been employed, at Kingston, where alone contracts existed—did not interfere with free labour, beyond a fractional part of one per cent., a fortiori the detriment to free labour, in the Dominion, must be but the fraction of a fraction of what is suffered in Illinois, by reason of the comparative number of convicts employed in such prison under contract. I am opposed to contract labour in the Penitentiaries; but, on higher ground than that taken by the Illinois Legislature or the Dominion Parliament, viz.,—its competition with free labour—a mere myth. I object to it, because it is detrimental to discipline, no matter how strict the surveillance of the prison officers. Despite the utmost vigilance, the intercourse of the employés of the contractors with the convicts has a bad influence. Moreover, the contract system very often causes injustice to be done to individual convicts. As at school, we see some boys who can learn their lessons and master a proposition in Algebra or Geometry with greater facility and rapidity than others; so, among convicts, there are some who can perform their daily task, allotted by the contractor or his foreman, in half or even quarter the time it will take others, working with good will and to the best of their ability to do the same work. The former generally earn money for themselves, by working overtime; the latter, on the complaint of the contractor or his representative, are punished for idleness or scheming. For these reasons and some others not necessary to mention, I have no regret that the contract system as formerly in operation at Kingston has gone by the board. There is still, there, an unexpired contract for lock making—an enterprise, which, as I am informed, does not conflict, to any degree, with any similar one in the Dominion—and, so far as I have been advised, by the late and present Warden, none of the evils, which generally result from the contract system, are found to exist in connection with this particular undertaking. Since, however, contracts for prison labour are now contrary to law, and as it will be necessary, for the next three or four years, to employ the convicts at Kingston on works connected with the Penitentiary, I do not feel myself justified in recommending a change in the Penitentiary Act, to provide for the renewal of the contract which ends with the present fiscal year.

Fortunately we are not yet, in Canada, in the same embarrassing predicament, respecting the employment of our convicts, as that in which prison authorities in certain States of the neighbouring Republic find themselves involved. Up to this time, the several Wardens have been able to find work for the great majority of the convicts under their charge, in various ways immediately connected with each Penitentiary. The time will come, however, when the sources of employment, hitherto drawn upon, will fail, and that at no distant day. The construction of new buildings, the alteration and repairs of the old ones and the improvement of the Penitentiary properties, on capital account, cannot always last. Very soon we shall be face to face with the same trouble which our neighbours are considering, over the border, and I think it well to sound a warning note, in order that we may be prepared for the exigency when it will have presented itself. In anticipation of what I must regard as a certainty, I have simply to repeat what I have so strongly recommended before—namely, that the Government, so far as possible and practical —as is done in England—have whatever work that can be performed by convicts, for public purposes, done in the various Penitentiaries. If this proposition be entertained, I apprehend there will be no difficulty in indicating the industries upon which convict labour can be used with like advantage to the prisoner and to the Government.

In this connection, it may not be out of place to remark that, the systems, which are proposed to be substituted for contract labour, in those States where it has been abolished by the Legislatures, are the piece price and State account plans. According to the former arrangement, the prison officers have full control over the work of the convicts, the contractor furnishing all the matériel and machinery, and paying a certain price per unit, dozen, score or hundred for the articles manufactured, as may be agreed upon. In the latter case the State manufactures and sells the commodities made by convict labour on its own account. One or other of these plans must be adopted wherever the contract system has been or will be set aside. There is no alternative, unless a life of idleness for the convict. The question suggests itself, will the demagogues and Trades' Unions be satisfied with either or both of these systems? If they do, it will be proof positive that the outcry against contract prison labour was mere frothy declamation—vox et preterea nihil. Should the clamour against the proposed new schemes arise, how is the difficulty inside and outside the prison walls to be overcome? As I have said before, there does not appear to be any just or tenable ground, on the part of outside mechanics and labourers, or the pretended advocates of these industrial classes, to object to prison as against free labour. Convicts, who had been mechanics and labourers, before their conviction, are not any more in competition with free labour inside the prison walls than they were outside. It is only those who had been drones, previous to their committal, that become the competitors in prison, to free labour. They as well as other convicts, who had been always industrious, earn their support, while in confinement, and are not a burthen on the taxpayer—a fact for which the free labourer and mechanic should rather rejoice than find fault. The argument in favour of convict labour being utilized for productive and revenue purposes, under whatever system, will conduce best to the maintenance of discipline, appears to be conclusive. That labour is absolutely necessary as a medium of reform goes without saying.

My presence at the meeting of the National Association, convened at Detroit, last month, pursuant to the wish of Sir Alex. Campbell, convinced me more and more of the necessity and advantage of the Inspector and Wardens being placed in the position to attend conventions of a similar character. A great amount of useful and valuable information is to be gained by the discussion of a variety of subjects relating to prison reform and administration by competent, experienced and practical men. I met at the Convention, representatives from a large number of the States, viz.: Commissioners or Directors of Prison Boards, Wardens and Governors of States' Prisons, Reformatories, Houses of Corrections, &c., all of whom were liberally furnished by their respective Legislatures with the means of defraying their expenses in attending the Congress. I take the liberty of, once more, calling attention to the advisability of making provision, in the Estimates, to enable the Minister of Justice to send any or all of the Wardens or the Inspector to visit some of the penal institutions of the United States and other countries, from time to time, or to represent the Department at future Prison Congresses.

In the United States a money value of $1,000 is set upon every immigrant, between the ages of eighteen and fifty. Were reformed convicts estimated in a similar way, and the reformation of even half a dozen, in the course of a year, effected by the increased information and experience gained, by the Wardens, in the way I have suggested, the country would be more than recouped the necessary outlay.

There is one special feature in our penal system the beneficial effects of which I have had frequent opportunity to observe. I refer to the justice and liberality displayed, by the Government of the Dominion, in providing for the religious requirements of convicts of every denomination of Christians. In each Penitentiary a Protestant and Catholic Chaplain are appointed to attend to the spiritual wants of the prisoners, at a fixed annual salary from the Government. The conscientious convictions and privileges of every convict are respected and guarded with the utmost care and vigilance. No interference or tampering, on the part of officials or visitors, in the direction of proselytising, is, for a moment, tolerated.

While acknowledging the satisfactory manner in which the wants of the Penitentiaries are met, by the Department of Public Works, in a general way, it is my duty to inform you that, serious inconvenience is very often felt by the Wardens in Manitoba and British Columbia, in consequence of the great delay that occurs in supplying urgent and indispensable requirements, for the most part comparatively inexpensive. During a recent visit to Stony Mountain, the Warden, in the presence of the Agent of the Department of Public Works, mentioned many instances where his requisitions were either not attended to or delayed so long as to incur risk and danger. The Agent represented that his discretionary power was very limited. He informed me that if a convict, through insanity or viciousness, smashed a dozen or a hundred panes of glass in the windows of the temporary hospital or the dormitory, in the coldest period of the winter, he had no authority to repair the damage before having first reported to and received the sanction of his Department to buy the glass and employ the glazier. It is not my purpose to find fault with or criticize the action of the Department of Public Works respecting those distant Penitentiaries; but, I consider myself warranted in again recommending either that a larger discretion be granted the Agents to meet pressing needs, or that the Department of Justice will return to the former very successful and satisfactory plan of having its own Architect and its own Parliamentary appropriation for Prison buildings and repairs. I have the utmost pleasure in stating that whenever I had the opportunity, under instructions from this Department, to submit, personally, the requirements of the various Penitentiaries, to the Minister of Public Works, they met with prompt attention, if the required expenditures were covered by the vote. It is matters, seemingly trivial, but, of the gravest importance in the completion of prison equipment-matters requiring the mere formal approval of the Minister, that are overlooked and delayed, thereby causing much needless correspondence. I sincerely hope, it will not be necessary for this Department to follow the example of the Irish Prison Board, and become emancipated from the control of the Department of Public Works. The Minister will, assuredly, take the necessary means to remedy the inconvenience of which the Wardens of the remote Penitentiaries so often complain, particularly as this is so simple and easy.

Judging from the statistics furnished by the several Wardens, from the different Provinces, in which the Penitentiaries are situated, it may be said, with a fair degree of safety, that crimes, at least those of a serious character, are not increasing in proportion to the population. The spread of temperance, the extension of education and the salutary influence of moral suasion and religion, beyond peradventure, contribute materially to check, in Canada, the progress which crime is, admittedly, making beyond our borders and elsewhere.

In Belgium and in some of the United States, where the test has been made of the indeterminate sentence, after a fixed minimum term, very good results are reported to have accrued. Habitual criminals—who are the scourge of the community when free, and whose bad example and influence with the well-disposed in prison, are most pernicious—serve, as a rule, many terms of imprisonment, short and long. When their sentence expires they are released, no matter what may be their character and conduct while in prison. When at large, in most cases, they return to their former habits of life and commit over again the crimes for which they had been again and again punished. No change of heart or disposition had been brought about while in prison. They looked forward to the time when they would be free again, to resume their old pursuit of crime. Under the indeterminate sentence system, such and all other criminals can be held in durance, until they would afford to the authorities, appointed to decide upon the matter, unmistakable proof of reformation, before being discharged. I consider that this plan would aid very much in the maintenance of discipline, that it would be a strong inducement to the worst class of criminals to amend their lives, that it would be in the interest of law, order and of society, and I, therefore, recommend its adoption by law. It is worth while, by way of experiment, to give a trial, in Canada, to a procedure which has accomplished much good in other countries.

In one of my Annual Reports, some seven or eight years ago, I suggested the advisability of adopting some plan of identifying former convicts among the prisoners held for trial before the several Criminal Courts. If any such were found the fact should be made known to the Judge in order that he would regulate the sentences accordingly. It very often happens that rescidivists for the fifth, sixth and seventh time and oftener, are tried and sentenced, without the fact of their having been former convicts being known to the Judge who presides. It is fair to assume that, identification being almost certain, and, consequent thereon, a more severe sentence than for a first offence, would have a deterrent effect upon habitual criminals. Failing this result, it would be of advantage to have the Judges reliably informed as to the antecedents of the bad class of offenders against the laws.

The conduct and the example of the chief and of those officers, who constitute the police of a Penitentiary, who have immediate charge of the convicts and who have daily and hourly intercourse with them, exercise a great influence in the direction of reform or further demoralization. I observe that where Guards and Keepers are judiciously selected on account of their fitness for the position, by reason of their former pursuits, intelligence and upright conduct, there is little if any difficulty in dealing with the convicts. On the contrary, where the class of officers mentioned are chosen on local or personal grounds, or to please this or that individual, without any regard to the necessary qualifications, it cannot be expected that the administration of affairs will be satisfactory or successful. It unfortunately happens that men, and not a few, find their way into the Penitentiary service who are utterly unfitted for it by their bad habits and entire want of principle and honour. Such persons succeed, very frequently, in escaping dismissal for a period long enough to enable them to do incalculable harm among the prisoners, by their undue familiarity, by cursing and swearing, by immoral conversations and by their bad reputation. The law empowers the Wardens to appoint Guards and Keepers. This is quite right as they are held responsible for the safety of the Prison and for its proper administration. It is incumbent, in the last degree, that every Warden should use the utmost care and discrimination in making choice of the men, to whom, in great measure, is to be confided the duty of moulding and shaping the future character and conduct of the prisoners who will be placed in their charge. Above all and beyond all, the most important factor in promoting reformation not only of the convicts but of the staff—when necessary—and of securing good administration, is a capable Chief Officer. If the Warden be a man having sufficient penetration to form a tolerably correct estimate of the character of those committed to his charge; if he be just and honourable; fair and impartial; not prone to resort to any means which are questionable—not to say wrong—in discharging his duties; if he possess such attributes and conduct himself in a manner that must command the respect and confidence of the officers and prisoners alike; there is every reason to hope that, under the régime of such an one, the convicts will go forth from prison better men, and that the members of the staff will be a credit to the Warden, to themselves and to the institution to which they are attached. This is not an exaggerated or too high an ideal of what a Warden should be. Let us hope that, those who occupy a position of such serious responsibility, before God and the Government, are up to this standard, or, if they be conscious of any deficiency, that they will study to apply the required remedy.

Should the Government see fit to establish a school for the training of men to be employed as Penitentiary officers, as has been done in some countries of Europe, a constant supply of capable men would be always available. Moreover, we would reap the same benefits, from a preparatory school, that are reported to have been derived from such institutions wherever they exist. It may be premature, just now, to advocate a system of training prison employés, at the public expense; but, I do not think the day is far distant when—its necessity and advantage being fully understood—it will be adopted. In the absence of such an establishment, I think that a desirable class of Guards could be secured from among the men who have served a term in the North-West Mounted Police.

I beg leave to call attention to the fact that, as reported by some of the Wardens and Surgeons, a considerable percentage of the convicts are imbeciles and more than half crazy. As I pointed out, in a former report, a majority of these unfortunate beings, according to the statements of the Surgeons and of the officers who have constant opportunities of observing their character and acts, are rather subjects for an asylum for idiots or the insane rather than for a penal prison. Some means should be adopted, before such persons are criminally indicted, tried and sentenced, to ascertain their true mental condition in order to prevent the cruelty which is involved in consigning idiots and lunatics to a Penitentiary. In Kingston Penitentiary the imbeciles and lunatics form twenty-five per cent of the total prison population.

From personal examination and inquiry I have found that the grants allowed to the libraries of the several Penitentiaries are entirely inadequate. Good books, selected by the Chaplains, and for which there is a general demand, on the part of the convicts, cannot be over-estimated in the general plan of prison reform. The money which is expended in their purchase could hardly be turned to better account. I therefore recommend that a more liberal grant than usual be made for the libraries. I would suggest that the appropriation for the libraries at Kingston and St. Vincent de Paul be increased $100 each and for those of Dorchester, Stony Mountain and British Columbia $50 each.

I earnestly hope that, the very agreeable relations, official and personal, which existed between your predecessors, from Sir John Macdonald to Sir Alexander Campbell, and myself, will continue uninterrupted. I shall endeavour, on my part, to discharge the duties which devolve upon me, as heretofore, to the best of my ability, with a view to the public interest and that of the Department to which I have the honour to be attached.

I would be wanting in due appreciation of his deserts, as a Minister, were I to omit mention of the full and prompt attention given by Sir Alexander Campbell to all matters relating to the Penitentiaries, which were submitted for his action, since he took control of the Department of Justice. I have to acknowledge, with great pleasure and pardonable pride, the unwavering confidence which he uniformly reposed in me, as his representative in the direction of Penitentiary affairs —even when pressure was brought to bear to shake or weaken that confidence; also his affability and courtesey, whenever there was occasion in our intercourse for the exercise of these admirable qualities.

Kingston Penitentiary.

I have very little to add, respecting this Prison, to what appears in the report of the Warden. Since the death of Mr. Creighton, the administration has been conducted, by Dr. Lavell, in a manner that gives good ground for hoping that he will prove himself a worthy successor of the late able and excellent Warden.

As he has stated, it was found necessary to make some changes in the personnel of the staff, chiefly on account of the advanced age and declining health of the officers who have been retired.

It is with regret I have to mention the contemplated resignation of the Matron, Mrs. Leahy. During the twenty-five years she has been connected with the Penitentiary her services have been very valuable. This has been recognized by the Board of Directors and by the Inspector, in the Annual Reports. She managed the Female Prison with zeal and success. Its order and cleanliness, and the perfect discipline which obtained elicited the admiration of visitors and the approbation of her superiors. It is a loss to the institution that, one, who has had such long experience and such peculiar tact in dealing with a class of convicts so unmanageable, as a rule, feels it necessary, in her own interest—her health giving way—to surrender a charge creditably held for so many years.

Early in the season, the crops promised remarkably well; but, since harvest time, I regret to state that the Warden has reported to me the loss of about two thousand bushels of potatoes from blight.

The discontinuance of the manufacture of clothing for the Mounted Police is a two-fold loss to this Penitentiary. First, on the score of revenue; secondly, it has deprived a number of convicts of suitable employment and of the means of learning trades whereby to earn a livelihood after their discharge. Perhaps the garments, were not as well fitting as those of a life-guardsman or such as a Buckmaster would turn out; but, I know that the workmanship was unobjectionable, if fairly judged. This is a class of work which can be done by convicts, without legitimate cause for objection from outside. It is for the Government, and does not, therefore, come into competetion with free labour or enterprise any more than the building of our Penitentiaries by prison labour. In England, work of a similar character is done, in the penal prisons, on account of the Government, for the Army and Navy, and there is no clamour made, in or out of Parliament, by the friends or advocates of the industrial classes or by the labourers or mechanics themselves. And why ? Because it is well and generally understood that the Government has an unquestionable right to exact from the labour of convicts an equivalent for their maintenance in the shape of whatever work they can perform, in the interest of the country and of the public. Were the same principle recognized and carried out, in the Dominion, our Penitentiaries, instead of being a heavy burthen on the taxpayers, would become, in great measure, self-sustaining. All the cloth required for convict clothing, for the overcoats of Penitentiary officers, and for the Volunteers, the blankets for the public service, the clothing for the Mounted and Dominion Police, the boots and shoes for the Militia Department, the castings for the Railways under Government control, and a large portion of the public printing could be all done at Kingston Penitentiary. Some other manufactures could be also carried on which would not conflict with any interest or, at worst, only with that in which these are concerned, who are aliens, and who would turn their backs on Canada to-morrow, if it suited their purpose.

The heating of the institution, artificially—which, for several years, I had advocated in this Report—has been affected, and great benefit in the way of increased comfort and cleanliness is felt. Another improvement, also recommended for a long time—the introduction of gas—is progressing towards completion. Before the end of the summer, there is every prospect that the gas house will be finished and the pipes laid.

There still remains a great and striking defect to be remedied, namely, the enlargement of what may be more appropriately called tombs or sepulchres than cells, their dimensions being eight feet long, two feet three inches wide and about six feet and a-half high. This work, as stated in former reports, can be done by convict labour. The expense for new matériel cannot be large, as the iron work, at present in use, can, presumably, be again turned to account. The present cells, like those at Sing Sing, are condemned by every one who has any knowledge or idea of modern prison architecture. They were planned a half-century ago, when but little heed was paid to the well-being of the unfortunate convict from either a physical or moral point of view. I most earnestly recommend that, the work of enlargement be begun, as soon as possible, and that a wing be provided with extra large cells and light, for the purpose of separation, as urged in the early part of this Report.

The criminal lunatic asylum is very well conducted. It accommodates not only the insane of this Penitentiary, but, also, those who are thus afflicted among the convicts confined at St. Vincent de Paul and Dorchester. The patients receive all the care and comfort that their condition requires and the circumstances of the place will permit. I fully concur with the Surgeon, Dr. Strange, as to the great necessity of some place, outside the asylum, where air and exercise could be had. The esplanade might, in fine weather, answer for this purpose, due precaution being taken to prevent the lunatics approaching too near the wharf. Suitable recreation ground for the insane could be had by taking in the field which lies between the Eastern boundary wall and Rev. Mr. Allan's property.

The conduct of the prisoners has been, on the whole, satisfactory. No offences, of a serious nature, were reported to me by the late or present Warden.

It is due to the Hospital Overseer, Mr. Halliday, to endorse the favourable testimony given of him by the Surgeon. He merits something more substantial.

I cannot close my remarks, on this Penitentiary, without mentioning, in terms of commendation, the extra zeal and energy displayed by the Deputy Warden—Mr. William Sullivan—during the illness of Mr. Creighton. I am pleased to learn from Dr. Lavell that he continues to discharge his duties in a manner to give him entire satisfaction.

After full consultation with the Warden, and a close examination of the requirements of the staff, I am forced to the conclusion that, for the proper maintenance of discipline and for the greater security of the prisoners, it is necessary to restore the Chief Keepership and to appoint some additional guards. Economy, effected at the expense of good administration, is ill-advised. During Mr. Creighton's time, a much larger number of the prisoners were employed in large gangs, in the workshops, the quarries and in constructing the wharf, than can be provided with work, in a similar way, for the future. The clothing for the Mounted Police, the quarrying and dressing of stone for the Military College, the Criminal Asylum and the new boiler house, the building of the wharf and grading of the esplanade, &c., all of which industries employed a large number of convicts, are at an end. The gangs must, of necessity, be split up, and more supervision is required. Hence it is that I feel myself, however reluctant, obliged to recommend the increase to the staff intimated.

St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary.

As mentioned in last year's Report, an investigation, into the condition and management of this Penitentiary, was ordered by the late Minister of Justice. This was done in consequence of a series of charges, of a very grave nature, which the Warden, Mr. Laviolette, preferred against the Deputy Warden, Mr. Télesphore Ouimet, and the Chief Keeper, Mr. Thomas McCarthy. The Minister appointed Mr. G. F. Baillairgé, Deputy Minister of Public Works, and myself, Commissioners, to make the inquiry. I think it proper, to mention, here, that it was at my pressing request, the Minister associated with me a French gentleman, to carry on the investigation. When I first made this application Sir Alexander Campbell was good enough to say he did not consider it necessary, as he had full confidence in his own officer—the Inspector.

We commenced our labours near the end of June, and they continued, with the intermission of about three weeks, till the close of September. A large number of witnesses was examined on one side and the other, a vast amount of evidence was taken—over 2,000 foolscap pages—and considerable expense was incurred.

It was deemed advisable for the Commissioners to make separate reports, which was accordingly done. They agreed in finding that the charges against the Deputy Warden, with the exception of a few, of comparatively trivial moment, were groundless, and that all the allegations against the Chief Keeper had no foundation whatever.

Pursuant to the decision of the Minister, upon the joint recommendation of the Commissioners, two officers were dismissed and three were fined a month's salary each for having played the disreputable and odious part of spies upon other members of the staff.

The Warden, was, no doubt, misled by the false statements made to him by the officers just referred to, and others, that the Deputy Warden, the Chief Keeper and other officers were conspiring against him.

The Warden and the two next officers in rank were instructed, by direction of the Minister, to take the best and earliest means of becoming reconciled. The Warden reported that this had been done. Since then, the affairs of this Penitentiary have run on better and smoother.

The Warden reports favourably of the conduct of the convicts, with few exceptions. He also states that the discipline is improving.

From the Surgeon's report it appears that the sanitary state of the Penitentiary is good. Fortunately, up to the time of writing this Report, there has been no case of small-pox, though so comparatively near Montreal. I have pleasure in testifying to the continued assiduity and care of the Surgeon, Dr. Pominville, and of the Hospital Overseer, Mr. Manning.

It is some years since I pointed out the necessity of having a detached building for a hospital. The room devoted to that purpose, in the same building in which are the Protestant Chapel, School, change room, the officers' muster room and the offices of the Warden and Accountant, is entirely unfit for the sick, in point of accommodation, security and ventilation. As I have again and again stated, the consequences, in the event of a contagious disease breaking out, would be very serious. I have, therefore, to recommend that a hospital be built during the next season.

The Warden reports the Library to be short of books. I trust my general recommendation, in another part of this Report, on the grant to the Libraries in each Penitentiary being increased, will receive your sanction.

As far back as the March of 1882 I recommended that the meals would be served to the convicts in their cells, and, among other reasons for this change, I represented that the new building, then, just commenced, and intended for a dining hall, could be converted into workshops, which were much needed. Though the change was made, the plan of the building was unaltered. It was erected as a refectory. It can, however—as I suggested to the Architect, Mr. Bowes, who concurred in my suggestions—be altered, with little expense, so as to answer for workshops. I trust the Minister of Public Works will issue instructions to have the improvements required made at an early date. It is a pity to have so fine a building unused when it is so much required for the industries of the institution.

I fully agree with the Warden as to the great necessity there is for a new piggery; and with the Surgeon as to its site being at a safe distance from the Penitentiary and from the Village. The present piggery is a make-shift affair and besides it is a dangerous nuisance from its proximity to the institution and to the houses of many of the Villagers. The stone, lime and bricks for the construction of a new one are on hand. The work can be done with convict labor, all that is required from the Department of Public Works, are a plan, the supervision of a mason instructor, some lumber, nails and shingles. These necessaries will, of course, be granted, by the Minister of Public Works, upon requisition from this Department.

I recommended, in my last Annual Report, the purchase of the Germain property, which is required for the enlargement of the prison yard, and for agricultural purposes. An item was placed in the Estimates, by the Minister of Public Works, and voted by Parliament for the purchase. The enlargement of the yard can scarcely be proceeded with before the opening of spring and nothing can be done with land any sooner than that period. If, therefore, the transaction be completed by the 1st of next April every purpose will be served. I join the Warden in recommending that the purchase be made by that date. I have just learned that, the Minister of Public Works consented to the buying of the land, while I was absent in British Columbia, and that an Order in Council was passed to that effect; but, that some difficulty, on the part of the owners of the property, about disposing of all the land which the Government intended to acquire, prevented, thus far, the closing of the transaction.

I very cordially join with the Warden in the hope to which he gives expression in the last paragraph of his report. To have this Penitentiary what it should be would afford me unspeakable delight.

Dorchester Penitentiary.

The affairs of this Penitentiary have been managed, in the past year, in a manner satisfactory to the Department. Nothing occurred to cause any unpleasantness.

As noted by the Warden, the female branch of the prison was closed at the end of June, by dispensing with the services of the Matron and Deputy Matron, and by removing to Kingston Penitentiary the six prisoners that remained.

The Deputy Matron, Mrs. Keeffe, rendered excellent service, for a number of years, as Matron of St. John Penitentiary, where her excellent qualities of head and heart were constantly and sorely tried in managing the large number of short term prisoners and convicts that were under her charge. She was equal to every emergency. Her good sense and her judgment and her experience as a disciplinarian enabled her to surmount every difficulty. During the many years that I have visited St. John and Dorchester, I had no trouble, and I heard of none in connection with the department under the charge of Mrs. Keeffe. I regret the necessity has arisen for the retirement of so good and faithful a public servant.

According to the report of the Warden the discipline has been very good. The increased remission time and the influence of the Chaplains have contributed much to maintain good conduct and to promote industry among the prisoners.

The School is well attended by such convicts as require to be taught, and they evince a decided interest in trying to learn and to take advantage of the opportunities offered.

It is gratifying that most of the convicts are employed at productive labour. Heretofore, the Warden found it a very difficult matter to find some occupation or other even for a moiety of the prisoners.

The officers of this Penitentiary are efficient, and are animated with the proper esprit de corps. On this account the administration is carried on without jar or friction.

The new wing is drawing near completion. I trust the Warden's expectation of its being finished this fall will be realized, as the number of prisoners sleeping outside cells is too large for safety.

The Chaplains concur in bearing high testimony to the good conduct of the prisoners under their respective spiritual care.

The Surgeon reports favourably of the sanitary condition of the Penitentiary. He refers to the overcrowded state of the Prison. As at Kingston and St. Vincent de Paul, he mentions the "defective mental organization under which a considerable number of the convicts labour." He concurs with the Warden in stating that a smaller number of youthful prisoners was received during the last than the two preceding years. This is a subject for congratulation.

I am still of opinion—resting upon that of experienced men, such as the late Governor Chandler, the late Mr. Stead, Architect, and others—that the test for a quarry has not been made in the proper place, and that further experiment, under the direction of a competent quarryman, should be made. For this end I would recommend that an item be placed in the Estimates of the Department of Public Works.

Manitoba Penitentiary.

I beg leave to call your attention to the overcrowded state of this Penitentiary. After having made the addition of forty-seven cells to the prison wing, there are nearly fifty convicts still unprovided with cells. Three years ago, I recommended that another wing be built, having been convinced it would be required as soon as it could be made ready for the reception of prisoners. Such has been the case. A sum was placed in the Estimates, two years since, and was allowed to lapse, owing, as I have been informed, to the very high tenders which were received by the Department of Public Works. The building of this wing cannot be any longer delayed than the next spring. The escapes which occurred, last year, are ascribed, by the Warden, to the want of cell accommodation. This Department cannot very well hold the Warden to a strict accountability for escapes, when a number of convicts are sleeping in the passages and in places imperfectly secured. Consequently, I recommend, once more, that an additional wing be built. Meanwhile, much might be done in the way of making preparation for the new building, during the winter, such as excavating the foundations, burning lime, quarrying stone, &c., by convict labour, were the Agent of the Department of Public Works furnished with the plan of the new wing and authorized to have these works carried on.

The Warden points out, in his report, the great want of a boundary wall. This has been done every year, in his and my report, since the Penitentiary was opened, at Stony Mountain, nearly nine years ago. This work could be done, in great part, by convict labour, if a sufficient number of mason instructors were employed. A Penitentiary without a surrounding wall, is a standing invitation to its inmates to escape. As with the additional prison wing and the surrounding wall, so it is respecting a hospital. There is none. The building which was put up, a few years ago, for punishment cells, is chiefly occupied by the sick convicts who require hospital treatment. A plan for an infirmary was prepared, some two years back, by the Department of Public Works, and approved by this Department. No further progress has been made. The Surgeon, in his Report, adverts to the inconvenience which attends the present system of treating the sick. Application will be made, again, to the Department of Public Works to make provision for a hospital in the next Estimates.

Both the Chapels are entirely too small for the numbers requiring room. It is in contemplation to build Chapels, at an early day, which will give the necessary accommodation, for years to come.

In addition to the foregoing requirements, the Warden asks for a tenement house for six guards; a proper bakery; and the enlargement of the stables and root-house. I satisfied myself, when at this Penitentiary, lately, that all these matters are needed.

The conduct of the convicts has been good, and the discipline, as in former years, all that could be expected or desired.

The removal of the insane patients, last February, to the Old Stone Fort, has been a great boon to the institution and the staff.

I have to repeat, in this Report, my former recommendations that some satisfactory arrangement be made with the Agent of the Department of Public Works, respecting small repairs and needs, whereby the inconvenience and trouble experienced, for years, could be obviated. The good disposition that is shown to meet our wants is worthy of all praise. It is the delays that are complained of.

Mr. Bedson is the senior Warden in the service. He has a larger prison population than there was at St. Vincent de Paul, when that Penitentiary was opened, in 1873, with 119 convicts, the number at Stony Mountain being now 148, with a certain prospect of an increase. Yet the Warden of St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary was, then, as now, paid $2,600 a year, whereas Mr. Bedson's salary is only $2,000. I think that he and the Chief Keeper are fairly entitled to an increase for the highly creditable manner in which the administration is carried on under exceptionally difficult circumstances.

The valuable services rendered and the bravery displayed, by the Warden, Capt. Bedson, in the field, during the late rebellion in the North-West, whither he went at the request of General Middleton, sanctioned by the Minister of Justice, Sir Alexander Campbell, deserves mention. Credit has been reflected on the Department by the meritorious conduct of one of its officers.

The affairs of the Penitentiary, in the absence of the Warden, at the front, were well and satisfactorily conducted by the Chief Keeper assisted by the other members of the staff, whose zeal and attention have been specially reported by the Warden to the Department.

The Chaplains have performed their duties with zeal and regularity, despite the serious difficulties, in the winter, of bad weather and roads.

The School has been carried on with advantage and is attended by those prisoners who require to be taught.

The health of the prisoners has been satisfactory. There has been no epidemic disease during the year. The Surgeon has bestowed all necessary care and attention upon those requiring his professional services. During the absence of the Warden, in the field, the Surgeon remained constantly at the Penitentiary, away from his practice, in order that he would be on hand in case of any disease breaking out. For this sacrifice, in the interest of the institution, I beg to commend him to your favourable consideration.

British Columbia Penitentiary.

I made a recent inspection of this Penitentiary and I am more than pleased to speak in terms of praise of the administration in general and in its details. Taking into account the great distance, the long interval, of seven years, since my former visit, the disadvantage, from both these causes, under which the Warden laboured, in not being able to receive from the Department and Inspector, promptly advice and instructions relating to various matters that caused doubt or uncertainty as to the proper course to follow, I was most agreeably surprised to find affairs in such satisfactory and commendable shape.

When I opened this Prison, in 1878, the land all around it was most unsightly, covered with boulders, huge blackened stumps of pine and cedar trees, rough and uneven in the extreme. There was no appearance of soil; nothing, on the surface, met the eye but a mixture of gravel and sand which gave but slight promise of fertility. Now, the grounds, from the road, running along the Fraser River, to the boundary of the Reserve, on the table-land, above the Penitentiary, are graded, laid out in lawn and under tillage, and the building approached by a serpentine avenue with trees, on both sides, as well planned and made as could be done under the superintendence of an engineer. With the exception of about thirty acres in the large ravine, lying between the Penitentiary and the Asylum, all the land included in the Reserve, has been cleared and fenced and is now under cultivation. The amount of work included in all these improvements shows that great and constant labour and skilful and experienced supervision have been employed to accomplish what has been done. I was most agreeably astonished to see such a change for the better in the aspect and surroundings of the place. The barren wilderness of 1878 is now teeming with fertility, and crops—root and cereal—were produced, last season, which would be regarded as exceptionally abundant in the most productive districts of Ontario.

The Warden gives to his Deputy, Mr. Fitzsimmons, full credit for the laying out of the grounds, the clearing, fencing and cultivation of the land. Besides discharging the duties of Deputy Warden and Chief Keeper, Mr. Fitzsimmons has acted as overseer of the industries carried on, and, also, as Farmer and Gardener, thus saving to the Government the salary of at least two officers that would be required to do the work which the Deputy has voluntarily performed. I feel it incumbent on me to make this well-deserved mention of an officer so zealous, competent and faithful. He has established a claim to more liberal compensation for his varied services than he is receiving and I trust it will meet with the consideration which it merits.

As I have done in reference to the Warden and Chief Keeper of Manitoba Penitentiary, namely, to recommend for them an increase of salary, so I beg leave to do the same in favour of the Warden and Deputy Warden of this institution. The number of convicts is considerably on the increase, the duties and responsibilities are proportionately greater and the rate of living is much higher than in the Eastern Provinces. Moreover, the economy with which the administration has been conducted, and which has given so much satisfaction to this and to the Finance Department, would warrant substantial recognition of the efforts made, so successfully by the two chief officers, to keep down expenses.

I would also recommend that the other officers of the staff be placed on the same footing as those of Manitoba Penitentiary, the cost of living and the condition of things, generally, being nearly alike in both institutions. The very frequent changes which have taken place, among the guards, is mainly due, as the Warden informed me, to the low rate of remuneration given. Those who would be fairly adapted for the Penitentiary service can secure better wages in other pursuits. The men who do engage in it remain just so long as suits their own interest or convenience—that is to say, until some easier and more lucrative situation offers.

The School is admirably taught by the Accountant, Mr. Keary. Among the convicts who were in attendance, when I made my visit, was a number of Indians and Chinese, whose progress was astonishing. Every one of them could read and write a little, and some remarkably well.

With the exception of some three or four hardened cases, the rest of the convicts behaved themselves very well.

The three insane prisoners, mentioned it the Warden's report, will be removed to Kingston Penitentiary, next spring, when this can be done over the Canada Pacific Railway.

Although 32 cells have been added by raising the roof of the prison wing, yet some of the convicts, as at Stony Mountain, sleep in the passages. A great increase is expected in the number of convicts, at the end of the Fall Assizes. On the main-land alone there are forty-two commitments on charges which, if proven, will send nearly every one of that number to the Penitentiary. Besides these there are many awaiting trial at Victoria and Nanaimo for grave crimes. From this it will be seen that another wing is indispensable. The building of it cannot be any longer delayed than next spring. I would urge that the work be immediately begun were funds available. It is three years ago, since I recommended another wing anticipating that it would be wanted, as it has been, before this time.

In my next Annual Report after the opening of this Penitentiary, I showed that a great blunder had been made in placing the building on the side instead of on the level of the table-land. When making requisition upon the Department of Public Works for the new wing, it was accompanied with the recommendation that the Prison proper be built upon the plateau and that the present structure be converted into chapels, school, barracks for single officers and other purposes. The examination I made into this matter, during my late visit, convinces me that a greater error than the first will be committed, if the recommendation referred to above be not accepted. If it be set aside, it will be necessary to build chapels, workshops (as those which were put up, some twelve or fourteen months since, are most flimsy and defective in construction, the daylight appearing in many places through the chinks) and quarters for officers who could be accommodated in the present building. On the score of economy I venture to think that very little saving w ll be effected by building wing No. 2 in close proximity to wing No. 1, the site of which has been universally condemned.

The water supply is insufficient especially in case of fire. Application has been made to the Public Works Department to remedy this defect, which I am informed is quite practicable.

By reference to the Surgeon's report, it will be seen that a hospital is one of the great needs. Several convicts have died in this Penitentiary during the last seven years, and there has been no other place for their medical treatment or wherein to breathe their last than the narrow and gloomy cell. No Penitentiary should be without a properly equipped hospital for there is no telling when a contagious disease may make its appearance. It has been asked for time and again, and no responsibility, with regard to it, rests with this Department.

A laundry and bake-house are required.

There are about thirty acres, belonging to the Penitentiary, in the large ravine lying between the Asylum and the Prison. This land, if fenced, could be cleared and brought into cultivation, and would give employment to the prisoners, for some years to come. The matériel for fencing would cost about $3,000. Application has been made to the Department of Public Works to grant this sum as it has been voted by Parliament.

Quarters for the staff were asked for in 1879. Plans were prepared, submitted to this Department and approved, some years back. Nothing has been done yet to provide suitable tenements for the officers. Many of them are obliged to live at so great a distance from the Penitentiary that their services could not be promptly obtained in case of an emergency arising, which may happen any night. The number of cottages necessary should be built on the Penitentiary front, between the road to Port Moody and the Fraser. As a portion of this property has been leased, by the Department of Public Works, to Mr. Laidlaw, for salmon canning, it will be necessary to make terms with him for the surrender of his lease. The want of accommodation along with the present rate of salary lead to so many resignations among the officers.

On the 7th October and 3rd of November, 1879, the Hon. James McDonald, then Minister of Justice, made an urgent request upon the Department of Public Works for possession of the Old Government House and grounds—which are included in the reserve—for Penitentiary purposes. The Minister over-ruled the objection which was made, in behalf of the citizens of New Westminster, to have the place assigned to them for recreation and pic-nics. Since that date, it appears that another objection, which I must take the liberty of characterizing as puerile and absurd, has been offered. It has been sapiently set forth that, as this place had been once the residence of former Governors, of British Columbia, and as it commands a fine view of the Fraser, it would be a desecration—as it were—to convert it into quarters for a Warden of a Penitentiary! Rather ludicrous, particularly in view of the fact that, the cows of the neighbourhood—as I saw myself—enjoy the shelter of the hall and drawing rooms, from the fervid heat of summer and the cold blasts of winter. One of the large brick chimneys has fallen in through the roof and the debris covers the floor of one of the fine and spacious lower rooms. The whole building is fast going to ruin, and the grounds, which would have been tilled and kept in order, if handed over to the Penitentiary, as requested, are in wild disorder, overgrown with weeds and the walks and terraces trampled out of sight and form by the trespassing cattle that are suffered to roam, ad libitum, over this portion of the Penitentiary reserve, over which this Department is supposed to have jurisdiction; but, singularly enough, can exercise no control.

I have recommended that the Old Government House be converted into quarters for the Warden—a want greatly felt—as he and the Deputy Warden jointly occupy apartments which were originally intended for the Warden, and that the grounds be cultivated for the benefit of the Penitentiary. This recommendation has again been communicated to the Department of Public Works with the sanction of the late Minister of Justice, who expressed his wish that it be adopted. I beg leave to express a hope that this will be done, and that the other requirements which I have enumerated will meet with the necessary attention.

It affords me very much satisfaction to acknowledge the valuable aid and advice which I have had, as occasion required, from the Deputy of the Minister of Justice, Mr. Burbidge. This enabled me to fulfil my varied and important duties with comparative facility and with, I hope, satisfaction to the Department and success in the public interest.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your faithful and obedient servant,
JAS. G. MOYLAN,
Inspector of Penitentiaries for Canada.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,
PENITENTIARIES' BRANCH,

The estimates for financial year ending 30th June, 1887, are now being prepared, and will appear among those to be submitted to Parliament next Session by the Hon. the Minister of Finance.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,

Hon. J. S. D. THOMPSON,
Minister of Justice, Ottawa.

GEO. L. FOSTER,
Accountant of Penitentiaries.

No. 2.

KINGSTON PENITENTIARY.

REPORT OF THE WARDEN FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED 30TH JUNE, 1885.

KINGSTON PENITENTIARY, 30th June, 1885.

I have the honor to submit the Annual Report, with the auxiliary returns of this penitentiary for the year ending 30th June, 1885.

The lamented death of the late Warden, John Creighton, Esq., occurred on the 31st of January, 1885, and immediately thereafter I was appointed to succeed him. Having had an intimate acquaintance for some thirty years, twelve of these years associated with him officially here, I am in a position to state that he was a faithful public servant, and in an admirable manner peculiarty fitted for the position he occupied.

I entered upon my duties with some trepidation, owing to the suddeness of the appointment, but having been connected with the prison for over twelve years, as surgeon, I was somewhat prepared for the duties assumed. Thus far I have been making myself familiar with the details of administration. I will therefore, in this my first report, abstain from doing more than is required to give a general idea of the work that is being done in this prison.

The conduct of the prisoners has been, on the whole, good, evincing, in most cases a desire to make the best of their condition. They appear to appreciate good treatment,and manifest a disposition towards earning the liberal remission provided by the Legislature. So far as they are concerned, it will be my effort, and it is my duty, without relaxing proper discipline, to combine reformation with punishment, and in so far as the circumstances will permit, exercise a humanizing influence which may tend to endeavors towards a better life.

The various industries of the prison are being prosecuted satisfactorily, giving at the present time sufficient employment for all the inmates able to work.

These industries, including the "lock" contract, comprise the farm, quarry, stonecutting, masonry, carpentering, blacksmith, tailoring, shoemaking, &c. ; all, in fact, that is necessary in erecting and keeping in repair our extensive buildings, the making and repairing of all the clothing and all the domestic duties of the place. Our principal work just now is the erection of gas works, which will likely be completed this fall.

The wharf along the water front is being pushed as rapidly as possible,with other works of less magnitude. These, with other projected improvements of an important but minor character, will utilize for some time all our available labor. Nearly 20 per cent. of the convicts are physically and mentally incapacitated for labor of a remunerative kind, so that the number available for hard work is more apparent than real.

	Males.	Females.
There remained in the Penitentiary at midnight on the 30th June,1884:	446	28
Received since then—
From common gaols	195	14
From other penitentiaries	1	7
Making in all	642	49

Discharged since—
By Remission of sentence	117	8
Pardon	22	...
Death	5	...
Escape	2	..
Total	146	8

Making a total of 154; which, deducting from 691, the number remaining 30th June, 1884, will leave our prison population on 30th June, 1885, 537, being 63 more than at the commencement of the year.

The daily average of convicts during the year a fraction over 500.

The amount voted for 1884-85 was	$98,433 25
Less—Expended	97,499 81
	$ 933 44
Revenue for 1884-85	$10,927 67
Average being 500, would be per capita	$ 21 86

Cost per Capita—Dailg Average, 500.

Staff	$ 87 14¼
Rations	37 97⅛
Uniform clothing	10 97¾
Discharge clothing and travelling alowance	8 68
Heating	17 02¾
Maintenance of buildings	6 44
Light	2 50½
Bedding	0 89
Miscellaneous	1 33
	172 96⅜
Deduct for revenue	21 86
	$151 10⅜

The surgeon reports the sanitary condition of the prison as satisfactory, and, in this respect, equal, if not superior, to other institutions of a similar kind. Our sick and insane are well cared for, and lack nothing that the surgeon considers necessary.

Since my appointment I have had to make some changes in the staff, the reasons for which I have reported to you, and which were approved. I have pleasure in stating that I found the officers of the penitentiary quite cordial in their reception of the new Warden, and ready to give a loyal support. I find them, on the whole, efficient. I shall not speculate or theorize as to what may or may not be accomplished here. I can only promise to do my best, in the interests of all concerned, to merit approval.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,

M. LAVELL,
Warden.

J. G. MOYLAN, Esq.,
Inspector of Penitentiaries.

REPORT OF PROTESTANT CHAPLAIN.

KINGSTON PENITENTIARY, 30th June, 1885.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit to you my report for the past year, during which time the ordinary duties have been regularly performed.

Having lately both heard and read a great many statements to the effect that the system of education, as adopted in our common schools, was filling our prisons with criminals, I desire to say that the whole of my experience in this penitentiary is opposed to this conclusion.

Having, when I was first appointed, adopted the plan of making the convicts read verse about at the bi-weekly bible classes, I was forced to give up the practice after a long trial, because the greater part of the men could not read sufficiently well to be intelligible to the rest. To the best of my recollection, it was rare to find more than three really fair readers among the twelve whom it was my custom to call up. In corroboration of this, I may mention that to-day out of fifteen female convicts present at my class only five read their verse as it went round.

I am aware that the prison statistics show a large proportion of educated convicts, but these are based simply on the man's own statement, and not on examination. For example, my own register shows the following proportions out of a total of three hundred and sixty-five men contained in my new register: Two hundred and twenty-one return themselves as able to read, write and cypher well; one hundred and five as able to read a little, while forty are unable either to write or read. But a good many claim to read well who can hardly read at all, as I have afterwards discovered, by examination for the choir or by accident. On the whole, therefore, while I would be far from claiming that any merely secular education will make men really good or honest, it is my thorough conviction that education does diminish crime, i.e, such offences as the law punishes, and that ignorance is the main feeder of this penitentiary. If the people of Canada gave their sons a good education, instead of taking them from school at an early age, to assist on the farm, &c., we would have fewer criminals. The man who can read really well has more knowledge of the consequences of transportation, more self-respect, which makes him dread punishment more, and more sources of amusement, rendering him less likely to loiter round taverns and come in the way of temptation.

The great disparity between the male and female commitments points in the same direction. There are at this date forty-one women from all Canada, as against four hundred and eighty-four men, all of whom, except a small number, have been committed from Ontario alone. The disproportion was much less, I am informed, thirty or forty years ago, when the difference in the education of the sexes was less than it is now. Allowing for all the other causes which shield the female from temptation to crime, I am disposed to assign a part of the disproportion to the fact that as a rule the girls get the full advantage of our common school system, and as a rule the boys do not. Another result of my observation during the last eleven years is, that a large proportion of the criminal population consists of those who, for various reasons, have fled from home at an early age. Second marriages of their parents are the cause which is oftenest alleged. This fact, to a certain extent, falls in with my argument, as the boy, on leaving home, of necessity leaves school, and looks for work by which to support himself. The number of convicts in the list already quoted, who have, while young, lost one or both parents, amounts to two-fifths of the whole.

Feeling, on reflection, that the statistics previously given were defective, in that they included a large number of men of foreign birth, I have carefully gone over the list, to ascertain the birth place of each. I find that two hundred and thirteen of the whole number are natives of Canada, and of these sixty-one return themselves as imperfectly educated, and thirty as unable to read or write, giving a total of ninety-one uneducated out of two hundred and thirteen; while I believe nearly half of those who profess to read well could not read a verse in the Testament intelligibly.

The voluntary bible class still continues. It is limited to fifty. I hope that some of those who attend derive some benefit from making, as they do, open profession of their desire to try and do right, to live to God and not themselves. It would be too much to expect a pure congregation in prison when it cannot be obtained outside, and there are some who come for unworthy motives no doubt. Still, I believe many are benefited by their attendance.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Yours respectfully,

C. E. CARTWRIGHT,

Chaplain.

J. G. MOYLAN, Esq.,
Inspector of Penitentiaries.

REPORT OF CATHOLIC CHAPLAIN.

PORTSMOUTH, ONT., September, 1885.

DEAR SIR,—I have the honor to present my eleventh annual report, which is for the year ending 30th June, 1885.

Since my last report many changes have taken place in this penitentiary. Warden Creighton, who governed the prison with great ability for the past fourteen years died on the 31st day of last January. In his death the Government has lost an able, painstaking and reliable officer; the country a citizen who had done much to change hardened criminals into useful members of society; the penitentiary a head that governed and made appointments without regard to politics, nationality or religion, and the convicts a Warden of fatherly heart.

During Warden Creighton's lifetime I rarely, in my reports, said a word in his praise, as such praise would have had the appearance of insincerity. Moreover, no words of mine were necessary to place him in proper light before the Department. Now that his useful life has ended, I can sum up his character in saying he was an excellent man and a capable Warden, who will be long remembered by all who knew him, as I had the honor of knowing him.

Whilst we mourn the loss of the late Warden, our sorrow is somewhat assuaged by the appointment of his successor. Dr. Lavell was well known to the staff, and his nomination gave universal satisfaction. He was acquainted with the institution and prison, and we had, therefore, reason to believe his administration would be marked with caution and wisdom. Since his appointment Dr. Lavell has proved himself worthy of the opinion we entertained of him. I wish him success and length of years in his important office. He will have ex corde whatever encouragement and support is mine to give.

The position of Surgeon became vacant by Dr. Lavell's promotion. Dr. Strange, of Kingston, was appointed to fill it. He has been remarkable for his care of and kindness to the sick.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Yours respectfully,

P. A. TWOHEY,

Catholic Chaplain.

J. G. MOYLAN, Esq.,
Inspector of Penitentiaries.

No. 20.

SURGEON'S REPORT.

KINGSTON PENITENTIARY, 1st July, 1885.

SIR,—I have the honor, as Surgeon of this institution, to submit the following report, with the hospital statistics, for the year ending 30th June, 1885.

In presenting the annual report of those treated in and prescribed for out of the hospital, as well as that in reference to the condition of the criminal lunatics, I beg to state, that having assumed medical charge on the 9th February last, I can only, from personal knowledge, for that period, report as to the health of those confined within these walls, which, I am happy to say, considering all things, has been most satisfactory, the death rate having been very small, one only of the ordinary inmates having died, death, in his case, having been caused by an incurable disease, viz., valvular disease of the heart. In the same period one of the criminal lunatics passed away. Cause of death, atrophy.

Every precaution is taken to prevent disease among the convicts, and when any one of them reports himself ill he is brought before me at my morning visit to the institution, and, if necessary, taken into hospital; or if his case is not of such a nature as to require his being admitted there, receives such treatment, medically, as is deemed proper, and sent to his work. Those in the female prison are seen by me immediately upon being reported unwell. In this way, by attacking disease at its commencement, a favorable opportunity is given one to "nip it in the bud."

In order that no cause for disease shall arise from defects in the water closets, I have inspected them, and requested that such repairs as I deemed necessary should be made, and that disinfectants be used once a week, or every fortnight at the farthest.

The Warden being a medical man, and knowing the great necessity there exists of all means being used for the preservation of health, has ably assisted me in my endeavors in this quarter.

During the time I have been in charge there has not been an epidemic of any kind here, and the record kept by my predecessor, the present efficient Warden, shows the same satisfactory condition of the institution from 1st July, 1884, up to the time of my having been appointed to fill the position I now occupy in the penitentiary.

The number of deaths for the last twelve months has been only five, and with the exception of the fatal case of pneumonia, the others were hopeless ones for medical treatment.

Insane Ward.

The unfortunate inmates of the lunatic asylum are well cared for by those in charge of them, and every thing is done to alleviate, as far as possible, their sad condition. A number of them, however, are broken down, physically and mentally, and consequently there is little or no hope of these ever being restored to soundness of mind. I am happy, however, to be enabled to state that no less than five of the curable cases have so far recovered as to be employed at labor in this institution. Although the asylum is in many respects everything that could be desired, there is one great want, viz., that the inmates have no place outside of the building in which they can occupy their time during the day. Could any place within the walls be set apart, in which they could amuse themselves gardening, &c., I would respectfully suggest it be done.

Female Institution.

During the year, as you will see by the "Annual Return of Sick treated in the Hospital," two children have been born here. I beg, in connection with this department, to express my warmest thanks to the Warden for his kindness in placing at my disposal a room for an hospital, which has greatly added to the comfort of those suffering from disease.

The number of convicts prescribed for, exclusive of those treated in the hospital, was 1,598.

I cannot close this report without expressing the highly satisfactory manner in which the Hospital Overseer, Mr. Halliday, has, at all times, discharged his onerous duties.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

MATRON'S REPORT.

KINGSTON PENITENTIARY, 30th June, 1885.

SIR,—I herewith submit my annual report of the work performed in the female department of this penitentiary during the past year.

The conduct of the women has been very satisfactory in every way. Breaches of the rules have not been of a serious character, and the industry of the female convicts has been good.

During the year twenty-one female convicts were received, six of whom were transferred from Dorchester Penitentiary, and eight were discharged by remission of sentence, leaving in prison at this date forty-one female convicts, an increase of thirteen since 30th June, 1884.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

MARY LEAHY,
Matron.

SCHOOLMASTER'S REPORT.

KINGSTON PENITENTIARY, 30th June, 1885.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit my eleventh annual report on the state of the school of this institution, and it affords me pleasure to say that our efforts to improve those attending school has, beyond doubt, proved successful.

Our daily attendance has been increased from ninety-one, as stated in my last report, to 109. Several have been removed and many admitted. Those removed have been supplied with slates, books, &c., for cell exercise. This has a beneficial effect, as it benefits the convict and greatly tends to the quietness of prison during long evenings, especially in winter. By the death of Warden Creighton our school has lost a warm friend, and we have every reason to believe that our present Warden, Dr. Lavell, will prove just as zealous, not only in this, but in every department of this vast institution.

Many thanks are due my assistants for their zeal in improving those confided to them. In a word, our school is a grand success.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

J. B. P. MATHEWSON,

Schoolmaster.

REPORT OF THE WARDEN, FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30th JUNE, 1885.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL PENITENTIARY, 30th June, 1885.

SIR,—I have the honor to transmit to you herewith my annual report, together with the usual petitions and statistics, for the year ended the 30th June last.

During that last period the movement of the convicts went on as follows: At the commencement of the year, that is on 30th June, 1884, there were 265 prisoners incarcerated; during the year 119 were admitted; and, by liberation, pardon and removal, 123 went out: therefore, leaving 261 convicts in on 30th June last.

The greatest number at any time of the annual period was 275, and the smallest 257, and the average 267, less a trifling fraction, and little under that of the preceding year, during which the average was 280.

The cost of maintenance for each of the convicts has been a little less for the last than it was for the preceding year, as shown by the statements made by the Accountant upon the subject, and transmitted with this report.

The works of construction, and others, have been progressing in a satisfactory manner.

The canal of the main sewer, consisting of a length of some 700 yards, and dug out in great part into the quick rock, at a depth, for a notable portion, of 24 feet, has at last been terminated in the course of December last.

Another canal, 50 yards long, has been made in the spring, in the yard, which has been utilized in carrying the water from the waterworks into the stables.

The central tower or rotunda, that other so important construction for the institution's safety, has been commenced in April last, and the works thereof have been pushed on with the greatest vigor possible, and everything connected therewith gives hope that they will be completed during the next year.

At the end of the season are to be resumed the works carried on during last winter (unavoidably interrupted last spring), required for the completion of the inside of the new building, which, commenced before the introduction of the efficacious and inappreciable system of the meals served to the prisoners in their cells, was intended as a refectory for them, besides other purposes. Those complemental works will, in all probability, be followed up to their completion.

But in relation to that magnificent structure, one thing continues to be much regretted, which is, that the works at the inside are followed up accordingly with the plans adopted at the outset—that is, just in the same way as if it were to be used in accordance with its first destination.

I cannot but insist, Mr. Inspector, to the effect that new arrangements be made in time, and that the whole interior of the building be adapted to the use it seems to be now destined for—that is, the shops, in place of the old ones, so defective, both in regard to their situation and smallness, respectively.

And in connection therewith, there is a fact, at least, which it is a satisfaction to note, that Mr. Architect Bowes, when being on one of his last visits here, stated, in your presence, that the modifications above and previously suggested could be made to the edifice easily and at little costs.

The quantity of bricks made in the summer of 1883 has been sufficient to supply the wants of the institution; and enough will be made this season to fully answer the need during the fiscal year which commences.

The lime is made and burnt always in time to constantly keep a sufficient supply on hand for the masonry work carried on.

The agricultural works have been attended to in proper season, under the intelligent direction of the farmer-gardener, Mr. Kenny; and the crop promises a satisfactory yielding.

By the bye, I beg to note that it is much to be regretted that the Germains' property has not yet been purchased, for apart from the advantages that the institution would derive from having it worked up by prisoners, a part of that land, you are aware, is indispensible to the enlargement, not less indispensible, of the penitentiary yard. In view of the last consideration, especially, I cannot but recommend earnestly that the farm be acquired as soon as possible.

Improvements have been made to the wood sheds in the yard, and other sheds have been built, one to shelter the coal, another to protect convicts kept at stone-cutting against the inclemency of the weather.

One construction which has been looked for for a long time is that of a "piggery," which ought to be built with sufficient dimension, and in a suitable place, instead of the one now existing, which is much too small and too near to the prison and surrounding habitations, being to both a subject of very legitimate complaint, during the heat of the summer in particular. The present building is in a decayed state with that.

That piggery, however, notwithstanding the annoyances mentioned, is of a real advantage to the institution, to which the required quantity of pork has been supplied almost entirely this year from that same source.

The convicts, with some unavoidable exceptions, have been quiet and submissive to the rules of the discipline. They have generally shown themselves laborious and industrious, as much as are likely to be men of their class and in their position.

The very limited number who are an exception are found mostly among those imbeciles or recidivists. It was from among them that came out the three who, in a mood of insubordination, assaulted so brutally, towards the end of May last, two of the officers—the Deputy Warden and one of the guards. Two of the assailants had to be corporally punished; the third one, not being in the required condition of health, was kept rigidly and lengthily in close confinement.

But the generality of the convicts, as I stated above, have shown good will and given satisfaction. Infractions of any gravity have been of rare occurrence.

There has been one escape and two attempts at escape during the year.

Discipline, owing to a rigid watch exercised by most of the officers, has been more and more improving. That progressive change for the better is a cause of encouragement for those to whom it is the duty to submit to it, as well to those whose mission it is to see its rules enforced.

The health is in a satisfactory state, as stated by the zealous and prudent prison physician, Dr. Pominville, in his annual report herewith transmitted.

Moreover, I can affirm that in the cells and cellars, as well as everywhere else, cleanliness ever prevails, having the conviction that it is one of the principal safeguards of the health.

Nevertheless, I think it my duty to draw your attention, as I have done in my preceding reports, to what is defective in our hospital. As you know, it is badly located, and has no efficient means for its proper ventilation. If an epidemic should occur, our population would be much exposed, indeed. Common prudence requires that it be obviated.

During the year one of the guards died, and also one of the convicts.

These cases of death were reported at the time, also the circumstances connected with them.

The library, as the generality of the prisoners like reading, has not a sufficient number of books at its command. It is desirable, then, that some, say a couple hundred volumes more, should be added to it.

The school is tolerably well attended and progresses in a satisfactory manner. Yet a greater number could attend to it, if they were not kept off by the nature of the occupation they were held to, such as brick-making, masonry and farming. But it will be otherwise with the latter (if we except those employed on the farm) in a few months, that is, as soon as those kinds of works will have been suspended, for the present season at least.

Mr. Schoolmaster Dorais, who is entrusted with its direction, treats more lengthly of this important matter in his report, which is transmitted with the other annual reports.

As to the morality among the convicts it is apparently satisfactory; and that is partly owing to the zeal and assiduity with which the Roman Catholic and Protestant Chaplains follow and superintend their respective congregations. These reverend gentlemen, in predisposing, through their frequent exortations, the convicts to do well, in insisting upon and have them to submit to and obey the rules of the discipline, do indeed contribute to its maintenance.

In concluding, Mr. Inspector, I have no hesitation in expressing the hope that within a time relatively near, after the buildings are brought to their completion, the enclosure of the prison is enlarged, by means of the intended purchase of the property in question, and that the personnel shall have become more and more efficient, this penitentiary will become what it should be, an institution practically of reform for the deluded and the criminals.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

GODEFROI LAVIOLETTE,
Warden.

J. G. MOYLAN, Esq.,
Inspector of Penitentiaries.

REPORT OF THE CATHOLIC CHAPLAIN.

(Translation.)

St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary, 30th June, 1885.

Sir,—I have the honor to present to you my report for the year ending, this day, 30th June, 1885.

The number of Catholic convicts brought to the penitentiary since 1st July last is eighty-four. Twenty-two are relapsed convicts. Two, who are still young, came directly from the reformatory at Montreal in order to complete here their term of sentence. Five others had also been previously confined here.

In the course of this official year 1884-85, ninety-two convicts recovered their freedom. Of that number one escaped from the Penitentiary and nine were pardoned.

In the month of June one convict died after having received the sacraments of the Church. Another, who had become insane, was transferred to Kingston.

Three convicts who entered as Catholics became attendants of the Protestant chapel, while four others who attended the Protestant chapel were admitted as attendants at the offices of the Catholic Church.

I am happy to state, once more, that most of the convicts behave well in chapel, and are attentive to the instructions given them on Sundays and holidays.

I am informed by Mr. Baillairgé, Deputy Minister of Public Works, that Mr. Desrosiers, of Louiseville, has received orders to provide an organ for our chapel in September next. I offer my sincere thanks to all those who have helped to secure for us this long-wished-for boon.

We have been compelled to reject from the library 174 books which were worn out and torn. We are, therefore, more than ever in need of the new grant which you have already been good enough to recommend.

The remarks I made in my last report as to the penitentiary school would, I think, be equally appropriate as to the year just ended.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,

J. O. GODIN, Priest,
Catholic Chaplain.

J. G. Moylan, Esq.,
Inspector of Penitentiaries.

The Sunday and occasional services have been held without intermission, while, as a general rule, prayers have been read by me, with as long an exposition as time would permit; but I very much miss the mid-week exposition, no opportunity for holding which being of late deemed possible, nor for the voluntary class that used to be held for religious and other useful instruction. I would fain hope that these opportunities of usefulness, being regarded in the light of a privilege to myself, to say nothing of the benefit to be derived from them to fully one-half of the convicts under my charge, may again be restored.

As a rule, the behavior of the convicts, during the past year, at the time of Divine service, has not been so satisfactory as might be desired, but the well-conducted are in the majority.

I have examined the English portion of the secular school twice, with much satisfaction.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

JOHN ALLAN,

Protestant Chaplain.

REPORT OF THE SURGEON.

(Translation.)

St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary, 22nd August, 1885.

Sir,—I have the honor to submit my annual report for the year ending 30th June last.

The sanitary state of this penitentiary for the past year has been as good as the preceding years. However, during the month of July, 1884, I have had many more cases of diarrhœa to treat than usual. I have had some cases of sporadic cholera also, due, no doubt, to the frequent changes of weather at that time. I am happy, however, to be able to state that I have had no epidemic or contagious disease of any kind.

Of the forty patients who have been admitted to the hospital, all, with the exception of three, have been discharged cured. One of those three died about the middle of the month of June last, of consumption (Phthisie Pulmonaire). The remaining two are still under treatment in the infirmary. The one is in an advanced state of consumption; the other suffers from cystitis, caused by a fall some time previous to his coming to this institution.

A convict whose mind became suddenly deranged has been transferred to the lunatic asylum for convicts at Kingston. This unfortunate was most remarkable for the filthy state of his person. He was in the habit of passing his days and nights in singing songs, &c. During the year many convicts have met with accidents. With the exception of one case, all the others have been of little or no account.

The list annexed to this report will show you the diseases that have been treated both in the hospital and cells, also the nature of the disease, &c., during the past year.

During the month of April last one of the officers of the institution died suddenly of congestion of the lungs while at his post.

It gives me great pleasure to be able to state that the Hospital Overseer, Mr. Manning, continues to bestow all the care and attention possible on the patients committed to his charge.

I have to thank the Warden and all the other officers of the institution for their uniform kindness in aiding me in the discharge of my duties.

Before closing this report, permit me to draw your attention to the piggery situated a few feet from the wall that surrounds the penitentiary. This sty, in which about 80 or more pigs are constantly confined, ought, in my opinion, to be removed far from the penitentiary and from the village. The people who live in its vicinity have already made many complaints regarding the filthy odor emitted by this piggery.

I have no hesitation in stating that despite all the care and other precautionary measures taken, that it emits, particularly during the warm season, miasma, which infect the air, and is sufficient to be the cause of serious epidemics.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

J. T. POMINVILLE, M. D.,

Surgeon.

SCHOOLMASTER'S REPORT.

St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary, 21st August, 1885.

Sir,—I beg to submit you my third annual report of the school under my charge for the fiscal year ending 30th June last, and have much pleasure in stating that those attending school regularly are truly making favorable progress.

Total number of men who have been enjoying the privilege of the school during the past year, 140.

Number of those admitted during the same period, 100.

Number of those discharged by expiration of sentence, 21.

I may repeat what I stated in my last report: "I am satisfied with the general conduct and application of that portion of scholars who attend school regularly." Unfortunately, it is precisely those most destitute of instruction that show the greatest indifference towards the school, in spite of the good advices given them from the pulpit by their respective Chaplains. I must say, in justice to those two gentlemen, whose direction I am happy to have and appreciate, that they have united their constant efforts to engage the convicts to attend school, and strive to learn there what they could or would not learn outside.

I have also to tender my sincere thanks to the chief officer of this institution for his constant support and good dispositions towards the school.

The system followed and subjects taught are the same as last year.

The library is now being furnished with new books, in order to replace those unfit to be repaired.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. T. DORAIS,

Schoolmaster.

DORCHESTER PENITENTIARY.

REPORT OF THE WARDEN, FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30th JUNE, 1885.

Dorchester Penitentiary, 1st July, 1885.

Sir,—I have the honor to submit my fifth annual report, with the usual returns, of the Dorchester Penitentiary, for the year ended 30th June, 1885.

The discipline of the prison has been very good during the year, and I find the extra remission of time continues to have, with very few exceptions, a most beneficial effect upon the conduct and industry of the prisoners. I have been very particular in awarding this remission time, and have only allowed it to convicts deserving of it.

You will find from our Surgeon's report that the sanitary condition of the prison has been very good.

I am glad to say that the number of minor convicts admitted this year is much smaller than it was in the previous years, but we have a very troublesome class of prisoners on the increase, namely, those bordering on insanity, who are weak-minded and very easily excited. Although the Surgeon cannot pronounce them insane, still they are in that mental condition which makes it very difficult to deal with them for their best interests.

The female prison was closed at the end of the fiscal year, the Matron and Deputy Matron being retired. Six of the ten female convicts here at the time were sent to Kingston. The remaining four were pardoned.

I have much pleasure in reporting that the services of the Chaplains have been most satisfactory, and I feel very thankful for the aid and assistance rendered to me by these gentlemen in my endeavors to establish good moral conduct and industry among the prisoners, apart from their spiritual duties. I may add that the conduct of all the convicts attending the services has been remarkably good, and is indicative of the interest taken by them in their various religious services.

I find, as heretofore, that a large number of the convicts continue to take a strong interest in the school, and are anxious to attend it. I often visit the school, and have found the progress made by the prisoners under the Master, Mr. Short, very satisfactory.

The facilities for employing the convicts here are steadily improving, and considering the number now engaged in the workshops and at the various trades, I hope in the future to find regular work for most of the prisoners. We are now manufacturing in the workshops pails, butter tubs, washboards, clothespins and broom-handles. To get a shop of this description in good working order, considering the various occupations, with unskilled labor, is attended with considerable difficulty. However, thus far I have had no reason to complain, and have no doubt all difficulties will be overcome in due time. This work is carried on under the supervision and instruction of those officers who had charge of similar work in the St. John Penitentiary, as directed by you.

You will see from the Farmer's report that the products of the farm are much better than could have been anticipated, as the season was so very wet and detrimental to the growth of all kinds of crops.

The contractor, Mr. Duffy, expects to finish the new wing the coming fall. I hope he may, as we require it now very much, and the prospects of increasing our population by the fall renders it necessary that the wing should be ready for use as soon as possible.

I am glad to be able to report that the conduct of the staff has been good, and that they have performed their various duties in a satisfactory manner.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

BLAIR BOTSFORD,

Warden.

PROTESTANT CHAPLAIN'S REPORT.

DORCHESTER PENITENTIARY, 30th June, 1885.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit to you my second report, as Protestant Chaplain to the Dorchester Penitentiary.

The duties of the office—public and private, formal and informal—have been discharged without intermission during the past year; and it is pleasant to be able to add that by the uniformly courteous assistance of the officers, from the Warden downwards, those duties have been discharged without friction.

The conduct of the prisoners in chapel is unexceptionable, a marked interest in and attention to the service being always visible, as distinct from simple submission to discipline.

The services have been greatly brightened by the assistance of Miss Chipman, who has kindly given her time to week-day practice with the convict choir, and also at Divine service on Sundays. And, now that we are probably about to lose her help, I am free to say that I very deeply regret that the Department has not seen its way clear, on my application, to have modestly remunerated a most useful public service, cheerfully rendered for nearly five years.

The authorities having closed the female department in this penitentiary, a final service, suitable for such an occasion, was held in chapel, on Wednesday, 24th June.

I frequently visit the school; and, in my judgment, Mr. Short discharges the duty of his position well.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. ROY CAMPBELL,
Protestant Chaplain.

J. G. MOYLAN, Esq.,
Inspector of Penitentiaries.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHAPLAIN'S REPORT.

DORCHESTER PENITENTIARY, 25th August, 1885.

DEAR SIR,—In submitting my annual report, I experience much pleasure in testifying to the general good conduct, during the past year, of the prisoners committed to my spiritual charge. In my dealings with them individually, I have been treated with uniform respect and attention; and during the hours of religious service, their reverence and piety have afforded me deep gratification.

It is also a pleasure to refer to the unvarying courtesy displayed towards me by the different officers of the penitentiary. Their kindness and good-will have, throughout the year, appreciably facilitated the discharge of my various duties.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant.

J. G. MOYLAN, Esq.,
Inspector of Penitentiaries.

SURGEON'S REPORT.

DORCHESTER PENITENTIARY, 1st July, 1885.

SIR,—I have the honor of presenting my report for the year ended 30th June, 1885.

During the last year the sanitary condition of the prison has been very good.

We have not been visited by any contagious or epidemic disease. The number of accidents has been small, and only a few of a serious character. In this we have reason for congratulation, as a large number of our men are employed in the workshop, in which there is considerable machinery, and being all new hands at the different occupations, are more liable to accident than the average outside workman.

In April last a case of small-pox occurred in this neighborhood. I then vaccinated all the prisoners that had not been recently done, or that did not show a good mark.

Our new wing, which was to have been finished a year ago, is not yet completed. This causes a somewhat crowded condition in the prison, and a large number of men have to sleep on landings in the dining hall. This, although very inconvenient, has not been attended, so far, with any bad results to the health of the convicts, as the whole is kept perfectly clean and well ventilated.

The physical condition of the men admitted this year has been fair. The number of young lads admitted has, I am glad to report, been much less than in either of the two preceding years.

The mental condition of a number admitted this year is such that, although they cannot be pronounced actually insane, are of such defective mental organization as to render them, in my opinion, not wholly responsible for the violence and excitement they too often exhibit. Of this class we have several, some of whom give way to occasional fits of violent passion and wild excitement, without the slightest reason, over which they seem to have not the least control. These give considerable trouble, and require occasional restraint and separation.

The hygienic condition of the prison could scarcely be better, and the general health of the convicts is good. This is not surprising, when you take into consideration the fact that a large proportion of the prisoners, before admission, suffer want, and after coming here, enjoy a life, as far as good food, warm clothing and a comfortable bed are concerned, that far exceeds the average poor man in our country.

There have been fewer attempts to evade work and feign sickness than heretofore, although occasionally one appears.

There were two deaths. One of these died suddenly from disease of the heart; the other was a case of consumption.

There were two sent to the Kingston Asylum during the year. Six female prisoners were sent to Kingston Penitentiary, and our female department is now closed.

The number of applications for advice and treatment was 1,079. Number of prescriptions to convicts, exclusive of hospital patients, 840. The number of patients in hospital was twenty, and the number of days in hospital, 384.

The tables annexed show the actual number, and diseases treated, both in cells and hospital, during the year.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
ROBERT MITCHELL, M.D.,
Surgeon.

SCHOOLMASTER'S REPORT.

DORCHESTER PENITENTIARY, 1st July, 1885.

SIR,—In making this, my fifth annual report, it is pleasing to say that the school is in a very satisfactory condition; the attendance is regular, and with the exception of a few who have often been admonished, occasionally suspended, and finally dismissed, the conduct is good. Some of the men whose names are on the register cannot attend as regularly as they would. Being employed on the farm, they are frequently out during school hours.

The Warden and the Chaplains often visit the school, and express their satisfaction with the mode of teaching and progress made by the pupils.

The general library has been made more useful, as nearly four hundred volumes—the majority of which have been unfit for distribution amongst the men—have been rebound, at a little cost, thus rendering them almost as good as new. A small sum has been expended in purchasing a set of "Waverly Novels," which is a great addition to the library.

Average daily attendance at school, 36.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
THOMAS SHORT,
Schoolmaster.

MANITOBA PENITENTIARY.

REPORT OF THE WARDEN FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30TH JUNE, 1885.

STONY MOUNTAIN, 3rd November, 1885.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit herewith my annual report for the year ended 30th June, 1885.

In my former reports I drew attention, with considerable emphasis, to the urgent need of a boundary wall. Notwithstanding my repeated appeals, nothing has as yet been done.

The overcrowded state of the prison and its unprotected condition entail upon the staff a very heavy tax. I am inclined to think that, notwithstanding the constant representations made, the absolute necessity for a boundary wall must be regarded as illusionary, or measures would surely have been taken, long ago, to remedy a state of affairs which is not only an unfair strain upon the watchfulness and discipline of the staff, but tends to laxity, and is subversive of those certain cardinal elements of discipline which are essential to the successful administration of a penal institution.

It is, however, gratifying to be able to state that the conduct of the convicts has, upon the whole, been good.

Two successful escapes were effected by convicts during the year, both solely due to the overcrowded state of the prison. No cell room was available in both instances.

By reference to the report of the Surgeon, it will be seen that the want of hospital accommodation is still very much felt.

The alterations, now in progress by the Department of Public Works, whereby the Warden's quarters have been converted into offices and additional cell accommodation, I am fully in sympathy with. This will give us forty-seven new cells, and provide partial hospital room for the present. The chapels, however, are much too small, and have also to serve as workrooms on week days. In consequence, I would recommend that suitable chapels be erected outside the prison.

The present bakehouse, in the prison, is too small. It would be far more convenient if the baking were carried on in a separate building.

The accommodation for guards requires to be increased. Some six or seven are now compelled to live off the reserve, and others being inconveniently crowded.

The stable room is insufficient for the requirements of the institution, and should be enlarged, and a carriage house built. The root house also needs enlarging, as it is too small for its purpose.

With reference to the Public Works Department, it would be preferable if some alteration in the system which at present obtains could be arranged, so that small repairs, not exceeding $75 to $100, might be proceeded with when called for, instead of entailing the delay of a reference to Ottawa. This you will, of course, have seen the necessity of during your annual visit.

A change took place in the department of the Steward and Engineer during the year.

The insane patients were transferred to the local authorities on the 20th February last.

On receipt of a telegram from the Hon. the Minister, Sir Alexander Campbell, dated 26th March, I reported to Major-General Sir Frederick Middleton, C.B., K.C.M.G., then at Winnipeg, when I took charge of the organization of the transport for the North-West Field Force, as Chief of Transport, till the end of the fiscal year. During my absence the staff performed their duties to my entire satisfaction, and with credit to themselves.

I beg to enclose the usual annual statistical returns.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

S. L. BEDSON,

Warden.

PROTESTANT CHAPLAIN'S REPORT.

St. John's College, Winnipeg, Man., 10th November, 1885.

Dear Sir,—I have the honor herewith of sending my report as Protestant Chaplain of the Manitoba Penitentiary. I could have wished that the Rev. Mr. Greene, my predecessor, could have had the opportunity of reporting upon his work before he left, as it covered the greater part of the year. In conversation with him, however, when he passed through Winnipeg, he expressed great hopefulness as to the results of his labors among the convicts, and great satisfaction at the kind way in which he had been assisted and encouraged in his duties by the officials of the institution. I resumed the work in September last—I say resumed, because, as you are aware, I occupied the position for several years before Mr. Greene took it up. It was pleasing to find the same able management and excellent discipline which one had occasion to note in the past. I found that the service in the chapel had greatly improved, and that an organ had been procured, which added very materially to the heartiness of the singing and responses. I hope in my next report to be able to tell you something of my work among the Indian prisoners recently sent in from the West, for whom I am procuring the assistance of an Indian-speaking clergyman from one of our missions.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

S. P. MATHESON,

Protestant Chaplain.

CATHOLIC CHAPLAIN'S REPORT.

Manitoba Penitentiary, Stony Mountain, 2nd July, 1885.

Dear Sir,—I have the honor to submit my annual report for the year ended 30th June, 1885.

I can express the great consolation I have experienced in the discharge of my duties towards the convicts who are under my care. Their zeal in learning their duties, and their good will in performing them have shown their good dispositions, and made their conduct what it should be.

The number of convicts who came into the institution during the past year has been very high. But of those who are Catholics, I may say that a good many of them are persons coming from the States. In many cases these persons were only for a short while on Canadian territory when they became guilty of the crimes which caused their incarceration. A good many, also, came from the North-West, from that country where people hope to become knights by stealing horses. It is quite satisfactory to say that the number of convicts coming from this Province is very small.

Death has passed in the institution during the year. I had to register three deaths in the short space of two months, and the three victims were three Indians. I am inclined to think that too long a detention may have caused the sickness which led them to the grave. They were young, healthy, strong; but these advantages were useless preventives against death. The idea of their detention was for them something very heavy and hard. I often heard them saying: Wayo otatchi ayayan; Estitotemak ayayan, gakekon.—If I were not here; if I were with my people, I would surely recover.

Since a few weeks, the enlargement of the prison has been started. The number of cells is increased; the offices of the guards and the hospital are enlarged; the chapel alone remains with the same small proportions. I hope a new one shall be built very soon. It is quite obvious that if the number of convicts increases, so as to occupy the prison as enlarged, the chapel shall be far too small.

I must express here my gratitude to the authorities of the institution for a special act of kindness towards the convicts, by securing services of men (guards) talking English and French. Among the convicts there were a good many who could talk only French, and could not understand a single word of English. These unfortunates, even good-hearted and well-intentioned men, could not execute the orders given, because they could not understand them, and that was detrimental to them. Such an act of benevolence shows that the headmen of the institution are willing to remove everything which could be a cause of complaint on the part of convicts.

I may say, Mr. Inspector, that I am satisfied with the liberality which was shown to me in the purchasing of books for the chapel and for the library. I never met with difficulties when I asked such books, and I hope not to meet any in the future. I hope, also, the continuance of the present good relations with the different officers of the institution.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Yours faithfully,

G. CLOUTIER, Priest,

Catholic Chaplain.

SURGEON'S REPORT.

STONY MOUNTAIN, 31st October, 1885.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit my report for the year ending 30th June, 1885.

Reference to the accompanying tables will show that the health of the institution has been satisfactory, and that the death rate for the year is much below the average.

I have nothing special to report concerning the sanitary condition of the prison. The watchful care in the prevention of disease has been well repaid, by the fact that we have had no epidemic disease during the year, and that the admissions to hospital have been below the average.

This leads me to speak again of the urgent need for a properly equipped hospital.

In my last annual report I laid great stress upon this point, and had fair promise of something being done in the matter, but I am, to-day, in the same position I was a year ago, dependent upon the kindness of the Warden for the use of the penal cell building as an hospital.

I urge again the great necessity for providing the penitentiary with the proper accommodation and equipment necessary for the successful treatment of hospital patients.

An hospital orderly would be found to be of great assistance, and, as mentioned in my last year report, I hope that provision will be made in the Estimates for such an appointment.

The lunatics who were confined here were removed in February to the temporary asylum at Lower Fort Garry. Their removal was a great relief from the unceasing care which had to be given to the unfortunate people.

I regret to say that I have not yet been supplied with the necessary surgical instruments. I will simply repeat in this what I said in my last year's report: "That I hope my requisition for these instruments will be complied with at an early date."

The large increase during the year in the number of convicts will, of necessity. lead to an increased expenditure in my Department. I can only say that, as in the past, due economy will be exercised, consistent with the health and well being of the convicts.

During the year I have had a very large number applying to me for a change of diet. Enquiry into the cause showed that the vegetable portion of the diet was too large, and that there was not a sufficient proportion of meat. I thereupon made a reduction in the amount of bread, as well as of vegetables, and an increase of meat by one-half. This has been found to be satisfactory.

I will close my report by referring you to the annexed tables.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

W. R. D. SUTHERLAND, M.D.,

Surgeon.

BRITISH COLUMBIA PENITENTIARY.

REPORT OF THE WARDEN, FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED 30TH JUNE, 1885.

NEW WESTMINISTER, B.C., PENITENTIARY, 2nd July, 1885.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit my annual report on the management of this penitentiary, with the usual returns, for the fiscal year ended 30th June, 1885.

On the 30th June, 1884, there remained here ninty-three convicts; received since then from common gaols twenty-nine. Total 122. Discharged during the year, by expiration of sentence, twenty-two; by death four—which left remaining at midnight on the 30th June, 1885, ninety-six convicts. Three of them are pronounced insane. One is a colored man, one an Indian, and one a Chinaman. I think it is quite time that some place separate from the cells occupied by men who are employed all day at hard labor should be provided for those unfortunate ones. Under present circumstances their chances for recovery are very poor.

With few exceptions, the conduct of the convicts has been good.

The chapels are both overcrowded, but this can be remedied by erecting a gallery in each, which I think could be done for about $1,500.

The guards have performed all their duties with satisfaction, notwithstanding the number of changes that have taken place on the staff.

As during last year and all the preceding years since the place was first established, the greater number of our convicts have been employed in clearing land and farming.

The tailor and shoe shops prove to be valuable acquisitions to the institution.

I am happy to be able to report favorably on the School. The teacher is attentive and shows much interest in his work. During the time of building the new cells, when it was impossible to hold school in the wing, he taught the men in their different cells.

The addition of thirty-two cells during the past year makes a great difference in our prison accommodation; still, at the present time there are but three vacant; therefore it cannot be long before another addition must be made. While writing on this matter I beg to call your attention to the grave necessity of having a number of large cells erected for the use of that class of convicts who are constantly on the alert for an opportunity to make their fellow prisoners as unhappy and discontented as they keep themselves. Such men give less trouble when kept apart from those who are trying to receive benefit from the many advantages that are placed in their ways during the time of imprisonment.

In making the late improvements it was found necessary to do away with the water tank, which leaves the building in a dangerous state, should fire break out in any part of it. We are still, to a great extent, surrounded by high timber land, and during the past month fires have caused much destruction throughout this district—in fact, during the summer and all through the dry season we are never safe from forest fires.

The want of a laundry or wash-house is very much felt. The small room on the ground floor used for the purpose of washing and drying convicts' clothes is not nearly large enough.

Also, I beg to draw your attention to the necessity of having a bakery built. I can safely say that it would be a saving to the institution to have the bread made here, instead of having to purchase it from a baker.

The lumber for fencing is very much needed. It should be provided during the fine weather, so that the work of building the fence could be continued without interruption. Many of the convicts must be kept in while the line of fence is being cleared through the woods.

On the 18th of August last the penitentiary was favored with a visit from the Hon. J. A. Chapleau, Secretary of State.

In conclusion, I beg you will accept my very sincere thanks for much kindly assistance and advice rendered through your letters during the year now passed. My subjects of communication on many occasions must seem very trifling. Still, if you take into consideration the fact that we have not been favored with a visit from the inspector for seven years, I am sure you will not blame me.

Again, I take pleasure in being able to inform you that thanks are due to the Deputy Warden. Every year his duties in connection with the penitentiary have increased, and I am happy to say that he has proved capable and willing on all occasions.

I enclose the usual annual statistical returns.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

ARTHUR H. McBRIDE,

Warden.

SURGEON'S REPORT.

British Columbia Penitentiary, 1st July, 1885.

Sir,—In making my report this year, I have to call attention to several points, some of which have been referred to in previous reports.

The tables accompanying show an increase in the number of cases admitted to hospital treatment, but this, in a large measure, is due to the increased number of prisoners, and to the fact that the building of an additional tier of cells and a new roof to the prison wing, during the inclement and wet weather of the fall and winter, caused a great deal of exposure to the prisoners.

The addition of the new cells relieves us from the bad effects of overcrowding—for the immediate present only—as judging from the past yearly increase of convicts it can easily be seen that further additions will very soon be imperatively called for, and it is earnestly to be hoped for that the erection of a suitable wing for an infirmary will not be long postponed.

In connection with this increase of prison population, the ever-present difficulty of finding profitable employment for convict labor presses for a solution. A partial one might be found by employing it in increasing the accommodation of the building and in the erection of a substantial stone wall around a sufficient extent of ground to provide an exercise yard, in which all the convicts could take proper exercise during such times as bad weather or want of work prevents them from being employed on the farm or elsewhere. The opportunities offered by the tailoring and shoemaking shops can only be taken advantage of by a limited number, leaving the question open as to a very large majority of the convicts. New lines of trade may be introduced from time to time, but the proportion in numbers employed will always remain nearly the same as now, while the difficulty will always be one felt by the authorities, and, as affecting my department, one which will always have a bad effect on the health of the convicts. Nor do I think I am wrong in adding—morally as well as physically. On a satisfactory solution of the question depends largely, the benefit to be derived, both by the country and the convicts, from the confinement of the latter in penitentiaries.

During the year I have had to report three prisoners as insane, and one as of weak mind, to the Warden. I have now to include them all in one category. Owing to the want of a proper infirmary ward these unfortunates have to be cared for as well as possible in the ordinary cells, and this same remark applies with even more force to the cases of the three Indians and the Chinaman who suffered from phthisis or consumption, and who, notwithstanding that everything possible was done for them by all the officials, succumbed to the fatal disease. I have in former reports pointed out that the Indians cannot resist the effects of constitutional weakness while undergoing a long term of imprisonment, and the tables now submitted further prove my statement. From a long experience of the Indian population here, I am confident that very few, if any, are free from the taint of constitutional weakness, or worse, and that a sentence to ten years' imprisonment is very nearly equivalent to a life sentence.

The hygiene of the prison has been maintained as efficiently as possible. The water supplied is of excellent quality. At present the quantity is only sufficient for the necessary requirements of the building. With the great facilities obtainable for providing a bountiful supply for all purposes, it is to be hoped that proper steps for doing so will soon be taken. The number and conveniences of the baths for the convicts require to be added to.

In concluding, I have to thank the Warden and all the officers for valuable assistance in carrying out the duties of my department.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

C. NEWLAND TREW, M.D.,

Surgeon.

REPORT OF PROTESTANT CHAPLAIN.

BRITISH COLUMBIA PENITENTIARY, 1st July, 1885.

SIR,—In presenting my annual report for the year ending 30th June last, I have the honor to state that there is nothing requiring special mention during the past year.

To enter into detail would be substantially a repetition of my last year's report. I have regularly attended to the duties required of me, and the discharge of these has been very pleasant to myself, and, I trust, profitable to those placed under my care.

REPORT OF CATHOLIC CHAPLAIN.

BRITISH COLUMBIA PENITENTIARY, 23rd July, 1885.

SIR,—I have the honor of again presenting my annual report for the year ending the 30th of June, 1885.

During the past year ten of the convicts under my care were discharged, their term of imprisonment having expired. The conduct of the convicts was comparatively quiet, there being only one attempt to escape. He, however, was captured before crossing over the enclosure. Notwithstanding the overcrowded state of the institution, the health of the convicts was pretty fair. The recent erection of additional cells does not at all suffice to afford accommodation to the inmates, and it is much to be feared, if sufficient room be not provided, there will be a serious outbreak of sickness. The chapels are also overcrowded. Something ought to be done as soon as possible to afford better accommodation.

The school has been well attended to during the year. The average daily attendance was thirty-four. Mr. Keary has been both punctual and attentive to his school duties. All his pupils have shown a decided improvement. Moreover, the conduct of all has been exceptionally good.

I cannot close this report without calling attention to the injustice of allowing this institution to remain so long without a visit from the Inspector. We have had only one such visit in seven years, and none at all for the past six years. The other penitentiaries of the Dominion are not neglected in this manner. This neglect and injustice is very discouraging to all, particularly to the officers, upon whom rests the entire burthen of the institution. Besides, this way of acting tends much to a relaxation of discipline, and other most serious consequences. I therefore most earnestly request that the Inspector visit this institution without further delay.

SCHOOLMASTER'S REPORT.

BRITISH COLUMBIA PENITENTIARY, 7th August, 1885.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit my annual report on the school of the British Columbia Penitentiary for the fiscal year ended 30th June, 1885. I have much pleasure in saying that those attending school are making very favorable progress. The average daily attendance is 34. In fact, there is room for no more. The nationalities of the 34 convicts are:—Whites, 4; Half-breeds, 1; Indians, 14; Chinese, 15. In addition to those who regularly attend school in the school-room, others, by the kind permission of Mr. Warden McBride, are furnished with books, slates, &c., for cell practice. This has a beneficial effect, as it tends to great self-improvement. There have been 1,310 changes of books in the library under my charge during the year.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

W. H. KEARY,

Schoolmaster.

Inspector of Penitentiaries.

REPORT

OF THE

JOINT LIBRARIANS OF PARLIAMENT

ON THE STATE OF THE LIBRARY.

To the Honorable the Speaker of the House of Commons:

SIR,—The Joint Librarians of Parliament have the honor to present their Report for the year 1885.

Attention is called,—

1st. To a very complete collection of pamphlets which may be referred to under the head of Political Economy in the Supplementary Catalogue. These pamphlets range from the year 1827 to the end of 1885, and cover the history of the rise and progress of the Corn Law agitation, the establishment of Free Trade in England, and the rise and course of the Fair Trade movement of the present time.

2nd. To a collection of volumes of "Selected Essays," culled from duplicate copies of various magazines, arranged according to subjects and bound and numbered in due order. In these volumes all the principal articles that have appeared for several years past on such subjects as Political Economy, the Colonies, Biography, History, &c., will be found collected together; and care has been taken to indicate in as many cases as possible the public character of the essays, the school of thought to which they belong and the sources whence they have been drawn. Improvements in the classification will no doubt be made as experience is had, and as suggestions may be received from members of the two Houses.

This collection has been made on the suggestion of a distinguished member of the House of Commons and the Librarians have particular pleasure in presenting it to the notice of the House.

3rd. To a collection of scrap books in which all the speeches that have been reported in The Times, since September last; all the articles of consequence; all the letters on Colonial Affairs, Political Economy, Parliamentary Procedure, Political organization, History, Biography, &c., will be found entered and indexed. The Index will be found to refer to those parts of the speeches of public men in England in which the Colonies or Trade questions were discussed. A separate volume will contain the Proceedings in the Imperial Parliament during the current Session, so that reference may be had to it in advance of Hansard's Reports.

4th. To certain volumes in which have been collected all published articles, reports, speeches and pamphlets on the subject of Imperial Federation. These volumes contain all that has been published on this subject from the first meeting in July, 1884, to the last speech of the Premier in England in January, 1886, and particular attention will be given to the task of making the collection complete by adding from time to time everything that can be had upon the subject.

The Librarians desire to press strongly on the notice of the House the necessity for protecting the Library by limiting the number of persons having the privilege of taking books to their homes. Nearly a thousand persons have enjoyed this privilege in past years, most of them residing in the city of Ottawa. Experience has made it painfully clear that the privilege of obtaining books, which is precious, and ought to be respected, is lightly held in the great majority of cases. Books are returned to the Library deprived of valuable plates. Whole pages are torn out of some volumes, containing matter which might easily be copied. Books obtained by private persons are constantly loaned to others and even sent hundreds of miles by post. Whole sets of books have been so constantly handled as to become offensive, and have literally fallen to pieces on the shelves. Books have been taken away by persons who have appropriated them and who have boldly declared that the books had been returned. The best editions of our classic English writers, in particular those editions which would afford most pleasure to gentlemen of both Houses who are advancing in age, and who find a good type essential to study, have had to be hidden away in cupboards to save them from the reckless handling of persons possessing and misusing a special privilege in the Library.

The Librarians consider it essential also that some fixed rule should be adopted with regard to the practice of permitting strangers to obtain books through members of Parliament during the Session, and with regard to the number of books obtainable by members themselves. Considerable difficulty is always experienced in enforcing the return of books obtained by strangers and charged to members.

The Librarians consider that the rule which limits a member of either House to three works at one time, might reasonably be made more liberal, and the number increased to six. But in the face of the rule which limits the number to three, the Librarians regret to have to report that books have been taken out of the Library in numbers from six to sixty. It is obvious that such a practice must seriously interfere with the usefulness of the Library, and with the readiness of its response to the continual demands made upon it by the members of the two Houses.

Among the practices most objectionable is one that has prevailed too much among members of Parliament, who, against the strict rule of the Library adopted by Parliament, have insisted on taking from the Library the volumes of Canadian pamphlets. The consequence has been disastrous. Losses have occurred continually, and the gaps in the lists of our volumes offer constant protest against the practice of permitting the pamphlets to be taken out of the room. Many of the pamphlets are valuable; most of them can never be replaced. Even the English Sessional Papers have not escaped loss; and recently it was found that a most valuable report on Acts of Parliament had been deliberately cut out of the papers for 1875. The usefulness of the series was destroyed by the abstraction of a report which might have been obtained in London for a shilling.

For the first time the Catalogue of the accessions to the Library during the year is presented in a form which includes subjects as well as authors, so that books sought for on any subject may be found under the name of the author and under the subject-heading also. The books under the subject-heading have been placed in alphabetical order. This annual Catalogue is susceptible of further improvements in its classification, and in future issues it is expected that these improvements will be effected. Since 1880 the catalogue of accessions has been published as an author-catalogue simply; and the Librarians entertain with interest the hope of being authorized to present to Parliament a subject as well as author-catalogue of all accessions from 1880 to the present time.

During the last Session gentlemen in the House of Commons, whose interest in the Library the Librarians desire most cordially to solicit and which they hope may continue and increase, offered various criticisms of its management, and various suggestions for its improvement.

Two complaints were particularly made. One was that books named in the Catalogue were not to be found in the Library, and no record of their fate is preserved. This is quite true. It is one of the unhappy consequences of a relaxation of wise rules, of the too liberal granting of the privileges of the Library to strangers, and of the indifference, which even on the part of members of Parliament, has too often prevailed regarding the books of the Library.

The other was, that the Catalogues of the Library were not systematic, and that access to the contents of the Library was not easily had. The Librarians desire to say, in justice to the memory of the distinguished gentleman who preceded them, whose merits they can only hope in time to aspire to, that after giving the system every consideration, they do not think that any improvement could be effected without such cost and trouble as the change would ill compensate. Every known form of cataloguing is open to serious objections. "Whatever system you adopt," says a distinguished library scientist, "you will be sorry for it, and wish you had adopted some other." And a writer in the London Times, of January, 1886, exhibits a similar view of the question, as follows:—

"Sir Antonio Panizzi, the leviathan of bibliographers, branded catalogue-making as the most difficult and thankless of literary tasks. He emphasized its perplexities before committees, commissions and boards, and the tilt which he ran against the Council and Fellows of the Royal Society, in the year 1837, over the catalogue of their scientific books, which he had then in preparation, was in exasperation at their want of sympathy with the librarian's handiwork. His failure, for such it was, to index the British Museum Library—he stopped short at letter A, printed in 1841—became merely a further illustration of his own views of the impossibilities of perfection in bibliography. This great catalogue, again in the press, after 45 years of revision, at the hands of Messrs. J. Winter Jones, W. B. Rye, Thomas Watts, George Bullen, Coventry Patmore, W. R. S. Ralston, Emmanuel Deutsch, G. W. Porter, Richard Garrett, Russel Martineau, and a host of specialists, is far from satisfying any of the survivors, the incongruities and shortcomings being as thick as the famed autumnal leaves in Vallombrosa. The science of bibliography is still in its infancy, in spite of the avidity displayed by American and English librarians in filling their shelves, during the last 15 years, with treatises on the mystery and art of catalogue-formation."

The system pursued in the Library is as follows:—

The Catalogue of the Library is divided into two sections, one containing works on Law, Politics and Statistics, the other embracing the works on Arts, Literature and Science. All books are classified under their respective subjects, so that for purposes of consultation every work possessed by the Library on any given subject may be found under its general title. As it is with the Catalogue, so it is with the works on the shelves; all those of the same category being placed in juxtaposition. In order to find out the works of any given author, or those on any given subject, it is necessary to consult the two Indexes which refer to the page or pages in the Catalogue where such names or titles are to be found. Thus all works on "Constitutional Law" will be found on pages 21-56 of the Law Catalogue, and all those bearing on the "History of Canada" between the pages 1270-1338. The Index is an unerring guide to the Catalogue, and the Catalogue contains everything that is or ought to be in the Library. It is not to be expected that any person unaccustomed to the system could, without guidance, find his way through the Indexes and Catalogues. There is no Library of any importance conducted in a manner rendering such a feat possible; few Libraries tolerate any indiscriminate handling of their Catalogues, and as a rule only experts or library clerks can successfully cope with the Catalogue of a large library.

It is hoped that the accessions since last year will prove most satisfactory to those who most thoroughly test and enjoy the advantages of the Library. A natural and inevitable demand during prolonged Sessions, for works in which amusement may be found by men fatigued with long sittings and with legal and political studies has induced the Librarians to provide works meeting that demand, but in measured quantity. The works of some standard writers having been worn out, have been renewed, and a considerable number of works of recent fiction have been added. It will be found also that all available recent literature dealing with such questions as the State, Constitutional Law, the Torrens system, Liquor question and Temperance, Railway Commissions and Management, Political Economy, published since last year, or to which, since last year, attention has been directed, has been collected for the Library. The latest editions of the principal legal text-books, especially those which deal with International Law; the most recent volumes on the operation of the Bankruptcy Act of 1881, England, and on the Franchise Act of 1884 in England; a variety of small text-books concerning the working out of the new Election laws in the Mother Country; and the latest compilations of the political and constitutional History of Great Britain, will be found added to the shelves since last Session.

The books added to the Library since last year are now in excellent condition. The binding is specially good; the type is in most cases pleasant to the eye; the pages are unsoiled, and the character and variety of the contents render access to the shelves one of the great pleasures of life to every man of taste, to every studious man, and every one seeking any kind of intellectual recreation, or professional or political information. But if the practice is continued of converting the Library of Parliament into a circulating library during the recess, by the next Session a large percentage of these volumes will be broken, soiled, dog-eared, perhaps plateless, and wholly unfit to be offered to those for whose pleasure and service this Library was created and is maintained.

We are glad to report that the Canadian section is nearly complete in several important parts. All the works bearing on the Wars of 1756-60 and 1812-13, have been secured, as well as a considerable number of treatises and studies on the chrestomathy of the Indian dialects of North America. Many important additions have also been made in the other parts of this section.

The Librarians beg to call the attention of Parliament to the fact that the general Catalogue of the Library has not been printed since 1857 (the law section only having been issued in 1880) and consequently copies of this Catalogue are difficult to obtain and are moreover of very little value, the additions to the Library having rendered it most incomplete. It will rest with Parliament to decide whether it should not be reprinted at an early date. The Librarians however respectfully suggest that the Catalogue of the Canadian section at least be reprinted this year. The plan on which it was originally and long ago started fails to meet the present requirements; it does not give without much research, an adequate idea of that section.

Honorable members could see for themselves at a glance that it no longer fulfils its object and that a new Canadian Catalogue should be issued as soon as possible. The list of donations and copyrights is appended. The Supplementary Catalogue will be issued early next week.

The whole respectfully submitted.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT,
OTTAWA, 21st January, 1886.

Hon. A. W. McLELAN,
Minister of Finance, Ottawa.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit herewith a statement of the accounts of the Province of Canada and of the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, from 1st July, 1867, to 1st July, 1885. Schedule "A" is a continuation of the statement previously printed, beginning 1st July, 1882. Schedule "B" contains the accounts re-cast in the form desired by the Treasurers of Ontario and Quebec. Schedule "C" contains, in a suspense account, the amount chargeable for Indian annuities.

The balances brought out by these accounts are: Ontario, credit, $4,175,276.95; Quebec, credit, $1,861,594.44; Suspense account, debit, $866,177.17.

There would also appear to be chargeable against the balance of the Quebec account the interest on $67,200, Montreal Turnpike Trust Debentures (held by the Dominion Government) from the 5th January, 1872, to 5th July, 1885, at 6 per cent. per annum, amounting to $54,432.00, and the compound interest on the same, $21,998.60.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. COURTNEY,
Deputy Minister of Finance.
